The Federal Identity, Credential and Access Management (FICAM) initiative is an effort of the Federal Chief Information Officers (CIO) Council to consolidate all government-wide identity, credential, and access management activities.

The FICAM Roadmap and Implementation Guidance provides an outline of government-wide segment architecture and practical guidance for implementing a segment architecture for FICAM management programs.

Alignment with the FICAM Roadmap is required per OMB Policy Memorandum M-11-11.

FICAM Maturity Model

Phoca PDF