CERTIFICATION OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL PURSUANT TO SECTION 105B OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE ACT OF 1978, AS AMENDED

IN THE MATTER OF [REDACTED]

DNI/AG 105B CERTIFICATION [REDACTED]

The Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General, based on the representations of Lieutenant General Keith B. Alexander, United States Army, Director of the National Security Agency (NSA), in his affidavit executed on [REDACTED] 2007, being duly sworn, hereby certify that: ~~(S)~~

(1) there are reasonable procedures in place for determining that the acquisition of foreign intelligence information under section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("the Act"), concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States, and such procedures will be subject to review of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court pursuant to section 105C of the Act; ~~(S)~~

(2) the acquisition does not constitute electronic surveillance as defined in section 101(5) of the Act; ~~(S)~~

(3) the acquisition involves obtaining the foreign intelligence information from or with the assistance of communications service providers, custodians, or other persons (including any officer, employee, agent, or other specified person of such service providers, custodians, or other persons) who have access to communications, either as they are transmitted or while they are stored, or equipment that is being or may be used to transmit or store such communications; ~~(S)~~

(4) a significant purpose of the acquisition is to obtain foreign intelligence information; and ~~(S)~~

~~(S)~~ the minimization procedures to be used with respect to such acquisition activity meet the definition of minimization procedures under section 101(h) of the Act. ~~(S)~~

On the basis of the foregoing, the acquisition of foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States, as described above, is hereby authorized. Any time NSA seeks to acquire foreign intelligence information against a U.S. person abroad in the above-referenced matter, NSA must first obtain Attorney General authorization, using the procedures under Executive Order 12333, section 2.5. This authorization expires on [REDACTED] 2008. ~~(S)~~

AFFIDAVIT OF LT GENERAL KEITH B. ALEXANDER, UNITED STATES
ARMY, DIRECTOR, NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY

IN THE MATTER OF [REDACTED]

(U//FOUO) Pursuant to section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) and in support of National Security Agency (NSA) request number [REDACTED] to the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of National Intelligence seeking authorization for the NSA to acquire foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside of the United States, and further requesting that the Attorney General and the Director of National Intelligence direct the persons specified herein to provide the assistance required to effect such acquisition, I affirm the following is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief:

1. (U//FOUO) There are reasonable procedures in place that the NSA will use to determine that its acquisition of foreign intelligence information pursuant to the requested section 105B certification concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside of the United States. These procedures are attached to this affidavit as Exhibit A. In addition, any time NSA seeks to acquire foreign intelligence information against a U.S. person abroad in the above-referenced matter, NSA will first obtain Attorney General authorization, using the procedures under Executive Order 12333, Section 2.5.
2. (U//FOUO) The NSA's acquisition of foreign intelligence information pursuant to the requested Section 105B certification will not constitute electronic surveillance, as that term is defined in the FISA, because the NSA has determined that the surveillance will be directed at persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States. As noted above, the procedures used to make such determinations are attached to this affidavit as Exhibit A.
3. (TS//SI//NF) The NSA's acquisition of foreign intelligence information pursuant to the requested Section 105B certification involves obtaining the foreign intelligence information from or with the assistance of [REDACTED] communications service providers and/or other persons who have access to the communications that constitute the foreign intelligence, and these communications service providers and/or other persons include the following:
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] These providers have and will in the future have in their possession and/or

IN THE MATTER OF [REDACTED]

MINIMIZATION PROCEDURES USED BY NSA IN CONNECTION WITH NSA
REQUEST NUMBER [REDACTED] FOR AUTHORIZATION FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE TO ACQUIRE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 105B OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE
SURVEILLANCE ACT (FISA)

1. With respect to the information the NSA acquires pursuant to the certification of the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of National Intelligence, the NSA will follow:

(a) the Standard Minimization Procedures for Electronic Surveillance Conducted by the National Security Agency (also known as Annex A to United States Signals Intelligence Directive 18), which have been adopted by the Attorney General and are on file with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court,

(b) Certain of the modifications to the standard NSA FISA minimization procedures for electronic surveillance adopted by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] which modifications are set forth

1. The following shall be added to the end of Section 3(f) of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

(7) The National Security Division of the Department of Justice shall periodically determine that information concerning communications of or concerning United States persons that is retained meets the requirements of these procedures and the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act.

2. The following shall be added to the end of Section 4(b) of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

With respect to any other communication where it is apparent to NSA processing personnel that the communication is between a person and the person's attorney (or someone acting on behalf of the attorney) concerning legal advice being sought by the former from the latter, such communications relating to foreign intelligence information may be retained and disseminated within the U.S. Intelligence Community if the communications are specifically labeled as being privileged. However, such communications may not be disseminated outside of the U.S. Intelligence Community without the prior approval of the Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division or his designee.

3. The following shall replace subsections (a), (b), and (c) of Section 3 of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

NSA may disseminate nonpublicly-available identity or personally identifiable information concerning United States persons to foreign governments provided that such information is foreign intelligence information and either (i) the Attorney General approves the dissemination; or (ii) NSA disseminates the information under procedures approved by the Attorney General. In addition, NSA may disseminate such foreign intelligence information, to the extent authorized by the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) and in accordance with DNI directives, subject to the following procedures:

(1) Disseminations to the Governments of the [REDACTED] may be made upon the approval of any person designated for such purpose by the Director of NSA.

(2) Disseminations to other foreign governments may be made upon the approval of the NSA's Office of General Counsel, upon consideration of the following factors: the national security benefit the United States may reasonably expect to obtain from making the dissemination; the anticipated uses to which the foreign government will put the information; and any potential for economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement to be reasonably expected from providing the information to the foreign government. If the proposed recipient(s) of the dissemination have a history of human rights abuses, that history should be considered in assessing the potential for economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement, and whether the dissemination should be made. In cases where there is a reasonable basis to anticipate that the dissemination will result in economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement: (i) the approval of the NSA's Signals Intelligence Director will also be required; and (ii) if dissemination is approved, NSA will undertake reasonable steps to ensure that the disseminated information will be used in manner consistent with United States law, including Executive Order No. 12,333 and applicable federal criminal statutes.

- (3) NSA will make a written record of each dissemination approved pursuant to these procedures, and information regarding such disseminations and approvals shall be made available for review by the National Security Division, United States Department of Justice, on at least an annual basis.

4. Regarding dissemination of evidence of a crime, Sections 3(a)(2) and 6(b)(8) of these standard NSA FISA procedures shall be superseded by the following:

Information that is not foreign intelligence information, but reasonably appears to be evidence of a crime that has been, is being, or is about to be committed, may be disseminated (including United States person identities) to the FBI and other appropriate federal law enforcement authorities, in accordance with 50 U.S.C. § 1806(b), Executive Order No. 12,333, and, where applicable, the crimes reporting procedures set out in the August 1995 Memorandum of Understanding: Reporting of Information Concerning Federal Crimes, or any successor document.

5. The following shall be added to end of Section 6 of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

NSA may disseminate all communications acquired to the CIA, which shall process any such communications in accordance with minimization procedures approved by the Attorney General.

- (e) The following additional modifications to the standard NSA FISA minimization procedures for electronic surveillance:

1. Notwithstanding sections 3(c)(2) and (e), 5(b), and 6(a) of the standard NSA FISA procedures, communications acquired under this Certification may be retained for five years. The communications that may be retained under this Certification include [REDACTED]

2. Section 3(c)(6) of these standard NSA FISA minimization procedures is deleted and replaced with:

To the extent reasonably possible, NSA personnel with access to the data acquired pursuant to this authority shall query the data in a manner designed to minimize the review of communications of or concerning U.S. persons that do not contain foreign intelligence information or evidence of a crime.

RE: DNI/AG 105B Certification [REDACTED]

The Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General executed in writing and under oath, based on a supporting affidavit, the above-referenced Certification pursuant to section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("the Act"), thereby authorizing the acquisition of foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States. The Certification was executed by the Attorney General on [REDACTED] 2007, and by the Director of National Intelligence on [REDACTED] 2007. Specifically, the Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General certified that:

- (1) there are reasonable procedures in place for determining that the acquisition of foreign intelligence information under section 105B of the Act concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States, and such procedures will be subject to review of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court pursuant to section 105C of the Act;
- (2) the acquisition does not constitute electronic surveillance as defined in section 101(f) of the Act;
- (3) the acquisition involves obtaining the foreign intelligence information from or with the assistance of communications service providers, custodians, or other persons (including any officer, employee, agent, or other specified person of such service providers, custodians, or other persons) who have access to communications, either as they are transmitted or while they are stored, or equipment that is being or may be used to transmit or store such communications;
- (4) a significant purpose of the acquisition is to obtain foreign intelligence information; and
- (5) the minimization procedures to be used with respect to such acquisition activity meet the definition of minimization procedures under section 101(h) of the Act.

OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE ACT OF 1978, AS AMENDED

IN THE MATTER OF [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Amendment 1

The Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General executed in writing and under oath, based on a supporting affidavit, the above-referenced Certification pursuant to section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("the Act"), thereby authorizing the acquisition of foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States. The Certification was executed by the Attorney General on [REDACTED] 2007, and by the Director of National Intelligence on [REDACTED] 2007. Specifically, the Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General certified that:

~~(S)~~

(1) there are reasonable procedures in place for determining that the acquisition of foreign intelligence information under section 105B of the Act concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States, and such procedures will be subject to review of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court pursuant to section 105C of the Act; ~~(S)~~

(4) a significant purpose of the acquisition is to obtain foreign intelligence information; and (S)

(5) the minimization procedures to be used with respect to such acquisition activity meet the definition of minimization procedures under section 101(h) of the Act. (S)

As explained in the affidavit of Robert S. Mueller, III, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) (hereinafter "Mueller affidavit"), the FBI seeks authorization to acquire pursuant to the above-referenced certification foreign intelligence information, [REDACTED] concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States. Attached herewith as Exhibit F are the procedures that, as explained in the Mueller affidavit, the FBI will use to determine, in conducting the acquisition [REDACTED] that the requested acquisition concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States. IN THE MATTER OF [REDACTED]

AMENDMENT 1

~~(S)~~ Pursuant to Section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Act of 1978, as amended ("FISA"), and in support of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's request to the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of National Intelligence seeking to amend DNI/AG 105B Certification 07-01 to authorize the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) to acquire [REDACTED] concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside of the United States, and further requesting that the Attorney General and the Director of National Intelligence direct the persons specified herein to provide the assistance required to effect such acquisitions, I affirm the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief:

1. ~~(S)~~ The Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General executed in writing and under oath the above-referenced Certification pursuant to section 105B of the FISA, thereby authorizing the acquisition of foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States. The above-referenced Certification was executed in writing and under oath by the Attorney General on [REDACTED] 2007, and by the Director of National Intelligence on [REDACTED] 2007. The above-referenced Certification was based on a supporting affidavit of Lieutenant General Keith B. Alexander, United States Army, Director of the National Security Agency (NSA), which was executed on [REDACTED] 2007.
2. ~~(S)~~ Attached as Exhibit A to the declaration that General Alexander executed on [REDACTED] 2007, were the procedures by which NSA determines that the acquisition of foreign intelligence information pursuant to the above-referenced Certification concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside of the United States. These procedures are attached herewith as Exhibit A. In the above-referenced Certification, the Director of National Intelligence and Attorney General determined in writing and under oath that these procedures were reasonable.

REQUEST NUMBER [REDACTED] AMENDMENT 1SEEKING AUTHORIZATION FROM THE ATTORNEY GENERAL AND THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE TO ACQUIRE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 105B OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE ACT

1. With respect to the information the NSA acquires pursuant to the certification of the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of National Intelligence, the NSA will follow:

(a) the Standard Minimization Procedures for Electronic Surveillance Conducted by the National Security Agency (also known as Annex A to United States Signals Intelligence Directive (8)), which have been adopted by the Attorney General and are on file with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court;

(b) Certain of the modifications to the standard NSA FISA minimization procedures for electronic surveillance adopted by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court in [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] which modifications are set forth below:

1. The following shall be added to the end of Section 3(f) of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

(7) The National Security Division of the Department of Justice shall periodically determine that information concerning communications of or concerning United States persons that is retained meets the requirements of these procedures and the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act.

2. The following shall be added to the end of Section 4(b) of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

With respect to any other communication where it is apparent to NSA processing personnel that the communication is between a person and the person's attorney (or someone acting on behalf of the attorney) concerning legal advice being sought by the former from the latter, such communications relating to foreign intelligence information may be retained and disseminated within the U.S. Intelligence Community if the communications are specifically labeled as being privileged. However, such communications may not be disseminated outside of the U.S. Intelligence Community without the prior approval of the Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division or his designee.

3. The following shall replace subsections (a), (b), and (c) of Section 8 of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

NSA may disseminate nonpublicly-available identity or personally identifiable information concerning United States persons to foreign governments provided that such information is foreign intelligence information and either (i) the Attorney General approves the dissemination; or (ii) NSA disseminates the information under procedures approved by the Attorney General. In addition, NSA may disseminate such foreign intelligence information, to the extent authorized by the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) and in accordance with DNI directives, subject to the following procedures:

- (1) Disseminations to the Governments of the [REDACTED] may be made upon the approval of any person designated for such purpose by the Director of NSA.
- (2) Disseminations to other foreign governments may be made upon the approval of the NSA's Office of General Counsel, upon consideration of the following factors: the national security benefit the United States may reasonably expect to obtain from making the dissemination; the anticipated uses to which the foreign government will put the information; and any potential for economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement to be reasonably expected from providing the information to the foreign government. If the proposed recipient(s) of the dissemination have a history of human rights abuses, that history should be considered in assessing the potential for economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement, and whether the dissemination should be made. In cases where there is a reasonable basis to anticipate that the dissemination will result in economic injury, physical harm, or other restriction of movement: (i) the approval of the NSA's Signals Intelligence Director will also be required; and (ii) if dissemination is approved, NSA will undertake reasonable steps to ensure that the disseminated information will be used in manner consistent with United States law, including Executive Order No. 12,333 and applicable federal criminal statutes.

- (3) NSA will make a written record of each dissemination approved pursuant to these procedures, and information regarding such disseminations and approvals shall be made available for review by the National Security Division, United States Department of Justice, on at least an annual basis.

4. Regarding dissemination of evidence of a crime, Sections 5(a)(2) and 6(b)(8) of these standard NSA FISA procedures shall be superseded by the following:

Information that is not foreign intelligence information, but reasonably appears to be evidence of a crime that has been, is being, or is about to be committed, may be disseminated (including United States person identities) to the FBI and other appropriate federal law enforcement authorities, in accordance with 50 U.S.C. § 1806(h), Executive Order No. 12,333, and, where applicable, the crimes reporting procedures set out in the August 1995 Memorandum of Understanding: Reporting of Information Concerning Federal Crimes, or any successor document.

5. The following shall be added to end of Section 6 of these standard NSA FISA procedures:

NSA may disseminate all communications acquired to the CIA, which shall process any such communications in accordance with minimization procedures approved by the Attorney General.

- (c) The following additional modifications to the standard NSA FISA minimization procedures for electronic surveillance:

1. Notwithstanding sections 3(c)(2) and (e), 5(b), and 6(a) of the standard NSA FISA procedures, communications acquired under this Certification may be retained for five years. The communications that may be retained under this Certification include [REDACTED]

2. Section 3(e)(6) of these standard NSA FISA minimization procedures is deleted and replaced with:

To the extent reasonably possible, NSA personnel with access to the data acquired pursuant to this authority shall query the data in a manner designed to minimize the review of communications of or concerning U.S. persons that do not contain foreign intelligence information or evidence of a crime.

3. Section 3(g)(1) of these standard NSA FISA minimization procedures, relating to absences "from premises under surveillance" by agents of a foreign power, shall not apply to this surveillance.

4. All information [REDACTED] acquired pursuant to the certification of the Attorney General of the United States and the Director of National Intelligence shall be treated under these procedures in the same manner as information collected through electronic surveillance.

5. The following sentence shall be added to the end of Subsection 3(g) of these standard NSA FISA minimization procedures for electronic surveillance, becoming new section 3(g)(3): "Any communications acquired through the targeting of a person who at the time of targeting is reasonably believed to be located outside the United States but is in fact located inside the United States at the time such communications are acquired shall be destroyed upon recognition. However, the Director of NSA may authorize retention, use, and dissemination of such communications if he determines in writing that they contain significant foreign intelligence information."

CERTIFICATION OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES
PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C. § 2511

In a Directive to Yahoo, Inc., (Yahoo) signed by the Acting Attorney General on [REDACTED] 2007 and signed by the Director of National Intelligence on [REDACTED] 2007 in DNI/AG 105B Certification [REDACTED] Yahoo was notified that, among other things, the Government will [REDACTED] pursuant to the above-referenced Certification. A true, correct and complete copy of the Directive is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

With respect to the [REDACTED] acquisition of foreign intelligence information authorized in DNI/AG 105B Certification [REDACTED] and in accordance with section 6(c)-(d) of the Protect America Act of 2007, as amended, I certify that no warrant or court order is required by law, that all statutory requirements have been met, and that the assistance directed with respect to the above-referenced Certification is required by the Government in order to accomplish this acquisition. This assistance is required for a period of one year from the date that Certification was executed.

Yahoo shall not disclose the existence of any interception or surveillance or the device used to accomplish any interception or surveillance undertaken pursuant to the above-referenced Certification, except as provided in section 105B(h) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended, or as may otherwise be required by legal process and then only after prior notification to the Attorney General.

In all other respects the undersigned represents that the Directive in the above-referenced matter is consistent with and authorized by the laws of the United States.

DIRECTIVE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL PURSUANT TO SECTION 105B OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE ACT OF 1978, AS AMENDED

TO: Yahoo Inc.
RE: DNI/AG 105B Certification [REDACTED]

The Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General executed in writing and under oath, based on a supporting affidavit, the above-referenced Certification pursuant to section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as amended ("the Act"), thereby authorizing the acquisition of foreign intelligence information concerning persons reasonably believed to be outside the United States. The Certification was executed by the Attorney General on [REDACTED] 2007; and by the Director of National Intelligence on [REDACTED] 2007. Specifically, the Director of National Intelligence and the Attorney General certified that:

- (1) there are reasonable procedures in place for determining that the acquisition of foreign intelligence information under section 105B of the Act concerns persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States, and such procedures will be subject to review of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court pursuant to section 105C of the Act;
- (2) the acquisition does not constitute electronic surveillance as defined in section 101(f) of the Act;
- (3) the acquisition involves obtaining the foreign intelligence information from or with the assistance of communications service providers, custodians, or other persons (including any officer, employee, agent, or other specified person of such service providers, custodians, or other persons) who have access to communications, either as they are transmitted or while they are stored, or equipment that is being or may be used to transmit or store such communications;
- (4) a significant purpose of the acquisition is to obtain foreign intelligence information; and
- (5) the minimization procedures to be used with respect to such acquisition activity meet the definition of minimization procedures under section 101(h) of the Act.
