In the name of God, and praise to God.

Peace and prayers be upon God's messenger, his family,
companions and followers

My fellow Muslims everywhere,
God's peace, mercy and blessings be upon you,

Bush has delivered his State of the Union address before Congress, and his speech was filled with lies and misguidance. One wonders how the leader of the most powerful nation on earth is not ashamed of all of this deceit and lying, and how could anyone from his nation's leaders and warlords cheer or applaud him? It is a phenomenon that requires a lot of thinking and reflection. Did Bush reach such a low level that he ridicules the intelligence of his audience? And did all of his audience reach an extent that they accept this belittlement and mocking of their intelligence? Does the most powerful nation in the world enjoy such baldness that they accept this misguidance and mislead, promote, and spread it everywhere? In any case, this might be outside the scope of my subject, and so let's get back to the Crusader Bush who is full of lies.

In his speech, Bush made four broad claims, broader than the distance between East and West:

His first claim: That his forces are spreading freedom and security in the world.

His second claim: That Iraq has gained its freedom due to the help of the Coalition Forces.

His third claim: That his government has captured more than two thirds of al-Qa'ida.

And his fourth claim: That the situation in Afghanistan is stable.

Along with these claims, he repeatedly insisted on requesting more money and funds to support his forces and security agencies.

We want to remind the whole world and the American people, who are led behind this lying Crusader-president, and recall a number of crystal clear facts, that even Bush and his lies cannot hide. The first thing we would like to remind Crusader-Bush with is that his forces do not spread freedom or security, but oppression and fear, and install corrupt rulers who are protected by his forces, who plan and show them how to brutalize and scavenge their people, while allowing them to inherit their powers from tyrant to descendant tyrant.

A quick look at the Islamic world, from Morocco to Indonesia, will reveal to you what sort of rulers the US supports and blesses their efforts in a war against Islam which it calls "The War on Terror."

Where is the freedom that the US is spreading through its agents such as Egypt's Husni Mubarak? That tyrant, who admitted to taking Egypt out of the Islamic-nation battle against Israel, disarmed the Sinai, and held the Sharm ash-Shaykh conference. He has always exercised pressure on the Palestinian Jihad organizations for the sake of Israel. Husni Mubarak, whose prisons are overcrowded with tens of thousands of honorable freemen that only demand the just rule of Shari'ah and resist surrendering to Israel as they fight against corruption, moral and financial deterioration... that Husni Mubarak who is preparing his son to succeed him in subjugating Egypt.

Where is the freedom of the Al Sa'ud family, who consider the country and the people in it as their own personal property, those who propagate a Saudi religion that calls for the complete and blind obedience to the ruler, who support Jews and Christians who brought their hordes of armies to the land of Islam which filled the land with corruption, deterioration, theft, immorality, and assaults against sanctities.

Where is the independence of Pervez Musharraf, who allows the FBI to frolic in his country with freedoms that they cannot even enjoy in America? Where is the independence of Pervez Musharraf, who helped America to kill tens of thousands of people and to annihilate the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, and who is now seeking to achieve America's, Israel's, and India's goal to annihilate Pakistan, by allowing the American, Israeli and Indian intelligence to interrogate the scientists of Pakistan's nuclear project and jail them like criminals. It is a campaign that will only benefit Americans, Jews and Indians.

Wasn't he the same Musharraf who America called a dictator tyrant, then announced later that he is a sincere friend when he helped them to shed Muslim blood in Afghanistan and to suffocate Jihad in Kashmir, and set the FBI free to roam in Pakistan, and last but not least - allowed the Americans to get hold of the scientists that worked on the nuclear project, to torture them and to make an example of them for the sake of America's War On Terrorism?

Aren't America and all of its friends and allies similar to him in their war on Terrorism, those that spread fear, coercion, theft, corruption, despotism and treason?

The second thing we would like to remind the liar-Crusader Bush of, is that Iraq does not enjoy freedom or security. The only thing that happened was a power transfer, from the control of a tyrant dictator-ruler who was secular and hostile to Islam, to a Crusader occupation that fights Islam, kills, detains, and tortures whoever they like and that steals anything and whatever they want from Iraq on the pretext of a lie which would make a bereaved woman laugh; that the US troops in Iraq are searching for the lost phantom Weapons of Mass Destruction.

It is an occupation that seeks only to divide Iraq into torn pieces that serve the interest of Zionists and Crusaders. You liar deceitful Crusader: Why didn't you mention one word in your speech about those that you massacred in the hundreds, in a holocaust of the struggling Iraq?

Why didn't you mention a single word about the "delusion" of the Weapons of Mass Destruction?

Third, we would like to tell Bush, the liar-Crusader, that he did not destroy or annihilate two-thirds of al-Qa'ida. On the contrary, it is still here - with God's grace - alive and present in the Jihad arena raising the banner of Islam in the face of the Zionist-Crusader campaign aimed against the Islamic nation. You liar-Crusader, your battle is not against al-Qa'ida, but against Islam and the entire Islamic nation, which considers al-Qa'ida to be one of its fighting vanguards that - with God's help - will defend its dignity, honor, and sanctities.

In regards to the one-half, two-third or three-quarters... whatever delusions or false rumors you may have, I say that you and your criminal security agencies know better than anyone that al-Qa'ida - with God's graciousness and generosity - are increasing, growing and expanding, despite what you and your Zionist allies say. You of all people should know best that the Islamic nation embraces al-Qa'ida and its Jihadists, and provides them with aid and support, because they realize that al-Qa'ida fights you and everyone that stands under your cross, and that it defends Islam and Muslims. We promise to God Almighty to pursue you as long as we still have a beating pulse in our veins. Just like the Prophet (PBUH) and his companies actively pursued Ibn-al-Haqiq and Ka'b Bin-al-Ashraf, with God's help and support.

Two years of war on the Mujahidin were sufficient to convince any rational person of the extent of the folly of this war against Islam and Muslims, but you are a foolish liar who cannot reflect on the past, to learn what happened to the fate of the Russians and the British that preceded you.

Therefore, we don't have any ploy to offer you or your herds, except to kill and send all of you to hell for an everlasting evil unfortunate fate. We have made up our minds to make you, your Crusader-herds, allies and traitor-agents a lesson to criminals in history, with God's help and strength.

The motives that led to 9/11 are still there, even increasing and escalating due to your crimes and stupidity, and the 19 individuals who made you taste the worst defeat that history has seen in the attacks on New York and Washington, are not exceptional freaks of history, but are the vanguards of a nation that rose up for Jihad, and there are millions of their brothers eager to seek the same path.

And we say to you and to others of your Crusader kind, similar to what Hassan Bin-Thabit - may God be pleased with him - said to the polytheists of Quraysh (TN: the prominent tribe of the Prophet): (TN: A poem meaning that: if you get lost, we will continue our pilgrimage business and everything will be ok and things will be bright again, or else you just wait for the hangman who will show you a day that only God will be Merciful to whoever He wants.)

Bush, you liar-Crusader, fortify your targets, strengthen your defenses, and intensify your security, because the Jihadi Islamic nation which sent the previous clandestine companies to New York and Washington has made up its mind to send another bunch of companies, one after the other, carrying death and mayhem and seeking heaven.

The fourth thing we would like to remind the liar-Crusader Bush of, is that the situation in Afghanistan is still unstable. Otherwise liar-Crusader, how could we - with God's help and strength - launch attacks against your forces and your traitor-bandit agents, and from where can we - you liar-Crusader - send you our letters that challenge you and expose your lies and falsifications? Can your puppet-agent Karzai hire Afghan guards to protect him? Or does he get protected by American soldiers? Could the United Nations forces be deployed outside Kabul? Why do your forces retreat from one location to the next? Why do you have to depend on hired gangsters that filled the country stealing, looting, ripping-off, and disgracing its honor, besides the narcotic trade and that's based on your confessions? And why do you, liar-Crusader, admit that after two years of your Crusade the Taliban is still the greatest threat in Afghanistan?

Can you, the liar-Crusader, answer all of these embarrassing scandalous questions?

The messenger of God, Prophet (PBUH) said: (TN: A quote from the Hadith which means - what people realized as words of early prophecy was saying if you don't feel shame then do whatever you want.)

In regards to the American people who Bush addressed in his speech, we have a few words to say: To the mothers and fathers of U.S. soldiers, whenever they receive a coffin arriving back home, they should remember the US crimes in Iraq, Palestine, Afghanistan, Chechnya, Kashmir, Guantanamo, and all of the detention camps belonging to American friends everywhere. People of America, whoever plants thorns will not reap roses.

I congratulate the Islamic nation, for the return of your masses to fight in the Jihad arena carrying the Prophet's (PBUH) victorious banner. So, increase your enemy, and rush your martyrs to heaven, and don't be hesitant in massacring those Zionist-Crusader criminals, and as God said: (Do you fear them? Nay, it is Allah Who is more deserving of your fear, if you are true believers.)

Finally, we pray and thank God Almighty, Lord of all worlds, and God bless our Prophet Muhammad, his family, and companions, peace be upon them.
