Component Mission:

National Security Partnerships synchronizes IC support and whole of government efforts with federal, state and local governments, the private sector and the Department of Defense, ensuring IC outreach is coordinated, timely and relevant. It also provides key leadership for activities in four domains that operate across national sectors – aviation, maritime, space and cyber -- bringing the IC’s activities in these domains into alignment, and facilitating coordinated engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC and with the rest of the federal government.

IC-DOD Office Mission: The Office of the Assistant Director of National Intelligence for IC-Department of Defense Coordination (ADNI/IC-DoD) synchronizes the IC-Department of Defense partnership, ensuring IC priorities, resources, initiatives and policy is fully socialized and informed by key DOD stakeholders. The IC-DoD division office places priority on aligning essential Intelligence Community efforts with Defense Department core missions. To do so requires extensive engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC-DoD and the rest of the federal government. Office core functions include but are not limited to developing and leading enterprise management initiatives; oversight and management of the military DNI representative program; and Directorate representation on key internal and external governance and resource boards.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Under the direction of the ADNI for IC-DOD Coordination, provide senior executive leadership and management.

Serve as principal advisor to the ADNI on significant strategic issues related to relationships among IC and DOD organizations. Provide subject matter expertise to support DNI and PDDNI decision making.

Oversee formulation of strategic plans related to complex IC-DoD issues. Provide staff direction and guidance to resolve problems, further integration and achieve efficiencies.

Assess Intelligence Community alignment and performance in satisfying DOD requirements in concert with National Intelligence Strategy (NIS) mandated goals.

Create and shape IC policy to further information-sharing in support of the Defense Intelligence Enterprise (DIE). Provide subject matter expertise to DIE policy development, as requested.

Oversee and facilitate national-level customer engagement plans across the DIE, Combatant Commands, and U.S. Coast Guard and as applicable, the National Guard Bureau.
Develop and lead specific IC-DOD enterprise management initiatives, to include but not limited to foundational military intelligence (FMI), OSINT/PAI, homeland defense and IC support to National Defense Strategy (NDS) implementation. Lead and/or support congressionally driven actions, as designated by the ODNI.

Lead a professional staff, assess performance, oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal and professional development. Interact with managers to ensure compliance and collaboration with policies which aids in developing the organizational culture.

Mandatory Requirements:

Demonstrated success in senior level positions. Extensive experience implementing results-oriented transformational change with resourcefulness and creativity.

Superior leadership capability, with the experience to effectively communicate organizational vision and align employee and program performance to the mission.

Expertise working in an interagency environment, Strong strategic and tactical planning and understanding of complex intelligence, operations, and security issues; expert critical thinking and analytical skills required to propose innovative policies and solutions for decision makers.

Solid knowledge of the IC and DOD, to include the roles and capabilities of member agencies.

Demonstrated understanding of complex issues related to intelligence support to military operations.

Broad knowledge of evolving DOD and IC policies, strategies, doctrine, and capabilities particularly in the areas of foundational military intelligence (FMI), targeting, IC-DOD C4ISR capabilities and emerging military doctrine and technologies.

Desired Qualifications

Prior Military Experience and/or civilian experience working in a DoD element such as a Combat Support Agency, the Joint Staff, USDJ, or a Combatant Command.
