Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal or detailee candidate to fill a GS-15 cadre position.

- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower as the advertised position grade may apply.

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.
For a cadre assignment:
  - Current ODNI permanent cadre.

For a detailee assignment:
  - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower as the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.

- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Lead a team engaged in resource advocacy for CI and Security elements in the Counterintelligence and Security Community outside the Intelligence Community, and representing NCSC with the IC's Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and other community resource professionals to recommend courses of action associated with CI and Security resources. The incumbent also will act as the lead for developing, identifying funding requirements for, and managing a strategic Non-IC CI and Security Resource Investment Plan. The incumbent will be expected to:

- Engage with NCSC Directorates, the IC CFO, the CI and Security community, and intelligence community planners and resource managers to develop, implement, and manage a CI Resource Advocacy Plan.

- Engage with NCSC Directorates, IC and Non-IC agencies, and the IC CFO to monitor and oversee the IC's CI and Security budget, and assist with educating and guiding NCSC leadership regarding strategic CI and Security resource objectives, resource processes and timelines, and the CI and Security resource picture for Executive Branch Departments and Agencies.

- Collaborate with other Directorate and NCSC offices to integrate resource advocacy and performance evaluation processes and information.

- Plan, schedule and implement informational review processes for Non-IC element CI and security-related budget justification materials.

- Provide expert advice and guidance in support of IC component resource management and/or budget justification process improvement efforts.
Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Expert knowledge of the federal budget cycle.

Expert knowledge of and experience with budget formulation, programming, and budget execution processes for IC programs and a Non-IC agency.

Ability to address complex, inter-related program and budgetary problems and issues.

Demonstrated progressively responsible experience in Resource Management or Financial Management within the DoD, IC, other Government Agency or Private industry equivalent to at least the GS-13 level.

Demonstrated superior written and oral communication skills, including experience communicating effectively with audiences of varying seniority and expertise, and ability to produce clear, logical and concise products.

Superior organizational and interpersonal skills.

Bachelor’s degree or higher.

Desired Requirements

Experience with and knowledge of counterintelligence and security missions and activities.

Knowledge of and experience working with the Office of the Director of National Intelligence and the intelligence community.

Extensive knowledge of IC and ODNI missions, organizations, roles and responsibilities and experience with intelligence policy, IPPBE process, IC missions, and interagency coordination.
