Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) leads the development, negotiation, and presentation of the National Intelligence Program (NIP) budget to the President and the Congress. The CFO's three main responsibilities include resource management (budget analysis, formulation, justification, and execution), performance planning and evaluation, and financial management improvement.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Develop and communicate project plans and schedules based on a clear understanding of customer requirements and information on project cost, schedule, quality, and performance; provide expert oversight of cost and resource estimates; participate in budget planning activities and develop cost estimating strategies for future projects.

Task government and contractor leads to execute and deliver on support to F3.

Assist the CI Chief with oversight of the F3 effort.

Write and execute strategic plans and objectives that achieve progressive implementation of F3 requirements.

Work closely with system developers, CTO and other leadership to represent F3 equities.

Assist IC-CFO analytic capabilities and technology leadership with strategies for future projects.

Participate in assessing analytic capabilities and technology, and ODNI Governance processes.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Demonstrated ability to listen to, clarify, and convey understanding of others' ideas, comments, and questions as well as to integrate and build upon diverse opinions in a manner that encourages the formation of integrated solutions and positions.

Demonstrated interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment and to lead and mentor junior and senior colleagues.

Project management, analytic, and critical thinking skills, including the ability to conduct project and management assessments, identify needs and requirements, and develop non-linear process improvement recommendations for implementation across the IC.

Ability to communicate with both technical and executive audiences on a wide range of topics.

Desired Requirements

Experience: Previous successful work on complex projects with multiple stakeholders and familiarity with IT systems development.

Education: Bachelor's or advanced degree, preferably in political science, international relations, computer science, engineering, information science, operations research, statistics, or technology management.
