

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY OUTREACH ACTIVITIES

Inspector General of the Intelligence Community Addresses Howard University Law Students

(November 29, 2018) Inspector General of the Intelligence Community (ICIG) Michael K. Atkinson joined other senior officials from the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) for a discussion with Howard University Law School students enrolled in a national security law class. The ODNI IC Equal Employment Opportunity & Diversity office sponsored the event with the support and participation of the Office of General Counsel (OGC), Office of Civil Liberties, Privacy, and Transparency (CLPT), National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC), and ICIG.

Representatives from OGC, CLPT, ICIG, and NCTC provided brief organizational overviews, followed by a discussion on contemporary legal issues facing the IC. The event concluded with a tour of the NCTC Operations Center.

Moving forward, event sponsors want to expand outreach efforts to increase the diversity of the applicant pool for IC attorney positions, and increase awareness of IC employment opportunities in traditional and non-traditional legal areas.

The Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 established the Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence. The ICIG's mission is to provide independent and objective oversight of the programs and activities within the responsibility and authority of the Director of National Intelligence, to initiate and conduct independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews, and to lead and coordinate the efforts of the Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum. The ICIG's goal is to have a positive and enduring impact throughout the Intelligence Community, to lead and coordinate the efforts of an integrated Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum, and to enhance the ability of the United States Intelligence Community to meet national security needs while respecting our nation's laws and reflecting its values. The Forum consists of the twelve statutory and administrative Inspectors General having oversight responsibility for an element of the Intelligence Community. The Chair of the Forum is the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community.
