Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community Recognizes National Compliance Officer Day

(September 2023) The Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community (IC IG) engaged the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) workforce with a National Compliance Officer Day event on September 27, 2023. The outreach program took place at ODNI Headquarters in McLean, Virginia, and the Intelligence Community Campus in Bethesda, Maryland.

National Compliance Officer Day honors the contributions of those who are committed to the profession of combating waste, fraud, abuse, and violations of laws and regulations. Each year, professionals who dedicate their careers to ethics, compliance, and responding to allegations of misconduct are acknowledged for their contributions to upholding the law and providing an avenue to report wrongdoing.

The event highlighted the importance of reporting suspected fraud, waste, and abuse and offered an overview of the unique role each IC IG division plays in providing independent oversight and strengthening the Intelligence Community. Resource materials to advise the workforce on how to contact the IC IG Hotline were also available.
