

SCHEDULED PUBLIC EVENTS

FOR NATIONAL SUPPLY CHAIN INTEGRITY MONTH National Counterintelligence and Security Center (NCSC)

On April 1, 2019, NCSC Director William Evanina is scheduled to deliver remarks on supply chain threats at a breakfast and panel discussion in support of National Supply Chain Integrity Month sponsored by the Intelligence and National Security Alliance (INSA). For details, see:

<https://www.insaonline.org/event/supply-chain-breakfast-panel>

On April 16, 2019, NCSC Director William Evanina is scheduled to participate in a panel discussion on the national security implications of 5G implementation at INSA's "Spring Summit: Managing the Evolving Cyber Landscape." For details, see:

<https://www.insaonline.org/event/cyber-symposium>

On April 23, 2019, NCSC's Joyce Corell is scheduled to participate in a panel discussion on securing the software supply chain at the 8th International Conference on Cyber Engagement sponsored by the Atlantic Council. For details, see: <https://www.atlanticcouncil.org/icce>

On May 1, 2019, NCSC's Joyce Corell is scheduled to participate in a luncheon and panel discussion on supply chain sponsored by the American Bar Association.