- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

The Office of Strategic Communication (OSC) is responsible for all NCTC public affairs and internal communications. OSC is an NCTC customer-service oriented function that stands ready to assist all NCTC components with public outreach, media relations, marketing, workforce communications, special events, protocol issues, and basic photography needs.

- Plan, support, and prepare NCTC Director and Deputy Director for foreign engagements, both those hosted at the Center and overseas.
- Plan for and support NCTC action officers for foreign engagements, both those hosted at the Center and overseas.
- Develop and coordinate engagement strategies for an assigned region, aligning to DNI, NCTC, and Directorate goals and strategic intent.
- Develop subject matter expertise on relationships with partners in your AOR, on key political and counterterrorism related trends in said region, and develop recommendations for Center engagement.
- Manage foreign partner visits, to include advancing coordination with partners, developing drafts of meeting agendas, developing Memorandums for the Records, and monitoring the completion of follow-on actions.
- Attend meetings and participate in IC and ODNI working groups, meetings, boards, and other forums to exchange information, develop recommendations, resolve issues, and implement specific ODNI policies regarding partner relations issues.
Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Ability to lead and support cooperative relationships within the IC, U.S. Government, and foreign partners in protecting the U.S. and its interests abroad.

- Interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

- Ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

Desired Requirements

- Ability and willingness to travel overseas. Interest in the political and terrorism environments of Africa, the Caribbean, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East.
