- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government’s counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead a team in support of the program to oversee, produce, and communicate trends and developments to organizational leadership, senior policymakers, and other senior U.S. Government officials.

- Conduct outreach and training activities to assist personnel in their efforts to plan, develop, and market the program to IC agencies, and non-IC federal partners.

- Establish and manage liaison relationships with ODNI component offices, IC agencies, and other U.S. organizations.

- Lead, develop, and conduct substantive briefings, presentations, reports, and other materials to inform senior leadership and other major stakeholders on CITADEL and Identity Intelligence policy issues.

- Oversee, lead, foster, and promote communications that increase stakeholders', consumers', IC colleagues', and U.S. Government executive agents' overall understanding of U.S. Government and IC policies, processes, and guidance to promote mission effectiveness.

- Superior ability to observe, measure, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives and direct the development and implementation of solutions and/or organizational changes.

- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including superior ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment; and to lead and mentor junior colleagues.

- Conduct reviews and provide substantive input to Congressional budget testimony, responses to Congressional queries, Questions for the Record, Congressionally Directed Actions, and letters, memoranda and reports regarding program, budget and execution issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert ability to build and sustain professional networks and collaborate with both management and staff to continuously improve community relationships, products, and services.

- Demonstrated representational, oral and written communication skills, including a superior ability to produce clear, logical, and concise products.

- Superior organizational and interpersonal skills, including and superior ability to establish and lead IC-wide teams, and effectively and independently coordinate and lead collaborative efforts.

Desired Requirements

- Experience: Bachelor’s Degree from an accredited university or equivalent work experience.
