- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government’s counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Oversee and lead staff in planning, review, and evaluation of U.S. Government security standards and IC policies to ensure appropriate protections for national security information.

- Oversee and lead staff in the planning, development, and promotion of broad ranges of security processes, and procedures and communicate this information across the IC and ODNI to ensure the protection of national security information.

- Oversee and lead staff in the planning, preparation, and presentation of high level briefings, position papers, policy documentation, reports, and other information to ODNI’s senior leadership and other major stakeholders on issues related to security policies and standards.

- Lead security project implementation and quality assurance by effectively monitoring schedule and performance, assessing variances from the plan; take necessary correction action; conducting project performance reviews as required; gathering relevant information and making decisions about required next steps; and developing and maintaining appropriate project documentation.

- Lead project teams of security professionals, both government and contract, on key security policy issues to ensure project is completed on time; effectively apply team building and coaching techniques, and exchange project or technical information with team members and contractors at formal and informal meetings.

- Plan, research, support, advise, and/or chair IC-wide security committees and represent the ODNI at IC-wide forums and interagency working groups that oversee the development, implementation, and evaluation of IC-wide policies and programs.

- Lead the National Interest Determination (NID) program for the DNI through IC policy, National Industrial Security Program, and federal laws.
• Assign work to team members; monitor work activities to ensure counterintelligence and security policies and procedures are followed; provide help or assistance to team members or others when needed; follow up and hold team members accountable for their assignments, communicate needs and requirements to project team members.

• Oversee and manage internal and external customer expectations and ensure delivery of quality security products and services, examine project success and failures, develop solutions, lessons learned and best practices to share and to improve products and services.

• Manage and coordinate tasking responses within the ODNI and across the IC to ensure the effective completion of initiatives and requirements.

• Present findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to ODNI senior management and external agency stakeholders as appropriate.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

• Expert ability to develop and effectively manage a complex security program, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and manage and mitigate risks.

• Superior organizational, decision-making, and leadership skills, including the ability to effectively manage the professional development of staff employees.

• Expert knowledge of applicable federal laws, Presidential Directives, Executive Orders, and Intelligence Directives in the following disciplines: industrial security, physical security, personnel security, and counterintelligence awareness.

• Superior ability to develop and to effectively manage complex security projects, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and manage and mitigate risks; experience estimating resources using analysis to project requirements.

• Superior strategic and tactical planning, critical thinking, and analytical skills in order to propose innovative solutions and implement change with resourcefulness and creativity.

• Superior ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

• Superior ability to coordinate, network, and communicate across the ODNI, IC and U.S. Government agencies.

• Superior ability to work effectively with teams, build and sustain professional relationships, exert influence effectively at all levels across the IC.
