Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Chief Operating Officer (COO) has the responsibility for advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) and administering the DNI's vision and direction to the ODNI enterprise. This includes synchronizing policy, plans, procedures, and cross-functional issues. The COO is responsible for integrating the ODNI staff to execute all missions and tasks designated by the DNI and the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI), and for overseeing the internal management of the ODNI.

The COO oversees all ODNI business operations, including such areas as human resources, diversity & inclusion, finance and budget, information technology, security, facilities, and information management. The COO is also responsible for ODNI's emergency planning.

The Information Management Office (IMO) provides guidance to ensure consistent information management (IM) practices across the IC, while managing mandatory IM programs for the ODNI. IMO's focus includes the disciplines of records management, classification and declassification management (including prepublication), and information review and release. Prepublication staff are responsible for using classification guidance and source documents to help determine what information is suitable for release into the public domain, as well as providing guidance on the releasability of FOUO products outside Federal Government control.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Provide oversight and leadership in the planning, development, and implementation of programs, policies, and procedures that result in the effective sharing of information across the Government while protecting Intelligence and Law Enforcement sources and methods, operational equities, and U.S. persons' privacy.
Support the development of programs, policies, and procedures that result in effective information sharing with non-Governmental partners while protecting intelligence and law enforcement sources and methods, operational and defense equities, and U.S. persons' privacy.

Ensure the maximum exchange of information throughout the IC and to nontraditional customers by balancing the responsibility-to-provide principle with the need-to-know standard as defined by existing policies, laws, and regulations.

Conduct simple and complex prepublication reviews of ODNI information, often with short deadlines, and balance competing priorities to meet mission.

Guide contractor personnel supporting the prepublication mission.

Continually expand personal expertise with regard to the development and implementation of information sharing tools, technology, plans, and policies to facilitate the cooperation and effective coordination of the ODNI, the IC, and other U.S. Government agencies.

Support interagency and cross-directorate collaboration on the development of classification and prepublication policies, guidelines, and procedures, and broker classification and prepublication agreements with external entities, then evaluate and assess these efforts to ensure that they are successful.

Support the implementation of interagency prepublication activities and programs by coordinating and integrating the competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders, including supporting and participating in interagency meetings.

Plan, prepare, and present briefings, training, reports, and presentations to ODNI leadership, senior policymakers, IC members, and other intelligence consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.

Ensure timely and accurate IMO responses to ODNI and executive branch taskings, as directed, coordinating with inter- and intra-agency offices and subject matter experts, as required.

Represent the ODNI within the ODNI and across the IC and executive branch prepublication and classification management community, as needed and as directed, participating in interagency venues, working groups, and meetings.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Extensive knowledge of Executive Order (E.O.) 13526, Classified National Security Information; the IC Markings System Register & Manual; classification policies, procedures, and technologies; and detailed knowledge of how to facilitate the implementation of those mechanisms obtained from other IC agencies.

Demonstrated ability to logically analyze, synthesize, and judge information, as well as the demonstrated ability to review and incorporate multiple sources of information in performing assignments.

Demonstrated ability to identify emerging trends and issues, as well as the demonstrated ability to assess the influence of these trends and issues on the effectiveness of U.S. Government programs.

Demonstrated ability to effectively diagnose, isolate, and expediently resolve complex problems pertaining to classification and prepublication.
Demonstrated ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, including to senior-level officials.

Demonstrated ability to develop effective professional and interpersonal relationships with peers and colleagues in ODNI, the IC, and U.S. Government, and to earn their confidence and trust.

Demonstrated ability to balance responsibilities among assigned activities; including the demonstrated ability to manage transitions effectively from task to task, and demonstrated adaptability to varying customer needs.

Experience training and mentoring junior personnel.

Ability to be proactive, maintain flexibility, and sustain momentum in changing or amorphous environments

Desired Requirements

Extensive knowledge of ODNI Instruction 80.04, ODNI Pre-Publication Review of Information to Be Publicly Released.

Four years of experience in the area of classification, declassification, or prepublication.
