Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as a senior editorial resource for the publications team; apply extensive knowledge of grammar, punctuation, corporate writing standards, and substantive matters in leading discussions to identify and resolve editorial issues and inconsistencies in complex text and graphics; mentor junior employees and foster mentoring relationships within the team.

- Assist to plan, define and manage complex publication projects; apply techniques to manage multiple projects concurrently and efficiently and develop production timelines that ensure the delivery of high-quality products on or before the deadline.
