- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead efforts to determine the state of collection against National Intelligence Manager for Transnational Crime, Homeland, and Western Hemisphere (NIM-THW) missions, identifying gaps against those missions, developing integrated, cross-intelligence collection strategies to fill gaps, tasking collection activity against their assigned missions, consistent with overall guidance from the Deputy Director of National Intelligence/Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II), and evaluating collector responsiveness and success in filling collection gaps and meeting mission requirements. Determine the state of analysis on assigned missions, identifying analytic gaps related to customer requirements, and tasking analysis related to those missions, ensuring that such tasking is consistent with the overall guidance from the Deputy Director of National Intelligence/Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II), and evaluating analysis responsiveness in filling analytic gaps.
- Develop integrated collection strategies for respective mission areas. Conduct analysis and provide recommendations on "cross-target tradeoffs".
- Partner with ODNI staff, Functional, Mission, and Enterprise Managers, and IC elements to advance the collection mission, assess progress against key intelligence gaps, and promote implementation of mission and enterprise objectives.
- Lead strategic collection initiatives and requirements development to ensure UIS alignment with National Intelligence Priorities Framework objectives and organizational missions and goals.
- Perform a leadership role in aligning and integrating the IC collection enterprise's total array of collection capabilities against the most important strategic intelligence issues within the NIM-THW mission areas, balancing long-term, enduring requirements against current issues and trade-offs while also documenting opportunity costs across the collection enterprise.
- Lead Community base lining of the current collection capabilities for issues in the NIM-THW area of responsibility. Baseline collection postures should include background information and input from collector organizations describing current collection efforts in addition to plans and recommendations to enhance collection.
- Foster and cultivate strategic alliances and professional networks with interagency partners and other community elements to ensure adequate resource availability and priority attention on National Intelligence Strategy and Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act (IRTPA) mandates, in support of the NIM-THW.

- Lead and oversee the planning, development, and production of strategic guidance for the allocation of resources and investment planning and programming staff elements and activities.
- Lead, plan, and prepare briefings, reports, and presentations to organizational leadership, senior policymakers, and senior United States (U.S.) Government agencies USG officials in a manner that meets their specified requirements and provide expert analysis and recommendations that ensure IC strategic plans and programs align with strategic objectives.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of and broad experience with addressing intelligence collection-related issues, and in-depth expertise on intelligence collection activities, capabilities, programs, and organizations.
- Expert knowledge of IC organizations' missions in order to develop the national-level strategies and policies necessary to support U.S. national security and foreign policy interests, with in-depth expertise and demonstrated ability to develop near- and long-term collection strategies, set goals, establish metrics, oversee projects and initiatives, measure progress, and oversee budgets.
- Superior ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, and to logically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate multiple sources of information for their inclusion in briefings and written documents.

Desired Requirements

- Prior experience with multiple intelligence source disciplines and working in a cross-domain environment.
- Prior work experience focused on both functional and regional issues, to include Western Hemisphere, Transnational Crime and Illicit Networks, Polar Regions, and Homeland (support to domestic IC elements as well as Border Security).
- Prior experience working with DoD combatant commands, DEA, DHS, FBI, and IC agencies, NT-50 organizations, and foreign partners.
