Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Serve as a primary representative of MPAC to the IC analytic community and accurately convey the community's strategic views to ODNI.

Provide, for senior ODNI officials and major stakeholders, independent judgments and recommendations on prioritized analytic mission needs and requirements.

Lead interagency initiatives to improve strategic analytic collaboration.

Engage counterparts on tactical coordination issues to implement flagship collaboration initiatives.

Oversee development of and drive a unifying vision to bring collaboration tools, data, and processes into a seamless user experience for analysts.

Monitor the IC's analytic governance structures to ensure decisions are made through the appropriate fora and disputes are resolved expeditiously.

Support briefings to senior IC officials and other major stakeholders on collaboration progress, issues, and challenges.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Expert knowledge of IC organizations, IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.

Superior ability to anticipate analytical issues relevant to the IC and United States Government and recommend/implement needed actions.

Superior leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups and to build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals.

Superior ability to design, initiate, and implement integration strategies for IC initiatives and programs, including the superior ability to manage human, financial, and information resources.

Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the superior ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.

Superior ability to manage strategic and tactical level topics, and develop innovative recommendations and solutions for improvement.

Superior interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.

Superior oral and written communication skills, including superior ability to draft and edit written reports of varying length and complexity, and to communicate effectively with audiences of varying seniority and expertise.

Experience working with multiple IC elements.
