- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

The selected candidate will support the National Interest Determination (NID) program, as identified in IC and national policies, the National Industrial Security Program, and federal laws. Specific responsibilities include:

- Lead the planning, management, and coordination of multiple substantive projects for Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Senior Executives by overseeing the review, research, writing/editing, coordination, and collaboration on time-sensitive information, correspondence, papers, policy, and briefing materials in response to taskings and action items from internal and external sources.
- Lead the planning, management, and coordination of strategic and tactical projects; oversee the planning and execution of action taskings associated with assigned projects and provide project status and reporting as a member of the senior leadership team.
- Lead the planning, research, writing, and editing of talking points, correspondence, executive summaries, communications, presentations, and briefing materials; oversee the planning and development of activity reports and summaries, and edit and rewrite as necessary.
- Represent the ODNI at government-wide forums and interagency working groups that oversee the development, implementation, and evaluation of industrial security policies and programs.
- Contribute to strategic planning, policy development, and resource management to support the application of Foreign Ownership, Control, or Influence policies to ensure compliance with the National Industrial Security Program.
- Present detailed analysis, findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to ODNI senior management and external agency stakeholders as appropriate.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of the ODNI, IC agencies' mission, organization, collection and production responsibilities, as well as ODNI and IC administrative policies, procedures, and authorities.
- Expert knowledge of IC information management security guidelines, document storage, and classification guidelines.
- Expert knowledge of mission area daily operational topics, capabilities, and strategic intent, as well as project management concepts and principles.
- Superior oral and written communication skills to communicate effectively with key stakeholders throughout the IC and United States Government.
- Superior analytical, critical thinking and problem solving skills, including the superior ability to interpret complex information from multiple sources.
- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including the superior ability to develop working relationships and networks with internal and external managers and staff.
- Superior research, planning, and organization skills, and superior ability to manage changing and competing priorities under strict timelines while maintaining a high level of attention to detail.
- Superior ability to work effectively with ODNI leaders in a highly active, fast-paced, and demanding organization.
