Component Mission

The Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community (IC IG) was established within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) by the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010. The IC IG's organizational divisions include Audit, Investigations, Inspections and Evaluations, Mission Support Division, the Center for Protected Disclosures, and Counsel to the Inspector General.

The IC IG is a relatively small-sized office with a large statutory mandate to provide independent and objective oversight of all programs and activities within the DNI's responsibility and authority. We are very passionate about what we do – we believe in our intelligence oversight mission and our core values of Integrity, Independence, Transparency, Accountability, and Diversity. We are looking for someone who shares these core values and will apply them to our information management efforts. If you believe in the mission of effective and objective intelligence oversight, are committed to excellence, and are looking for an opportunity to have a positive and enduring impact on the United States Intelligence Community, this is the place for you.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

We are looking for an Information Management Program Officer to provide Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Privacy Act (PA), and Records Management expertise as part of our mission to provide effective and objective intelligence oversight across the Intelligence Community. The Information Management Program Officer will manage the IC IG Records and Information Management Program. The ideal candidate for this position is well versed in managing day-to-day coordination and oversight to properly safeguard Government information, protect IC IG equities, and preserve IC IG independence while also promoting accountability and transparency. If you are an excellent collaborator, detail oriented, enjoy research, and possess outstanding organizational skills, we would like to meet you.

The incumbent in this position will:

Serve as the central point of contact, coordination, and control for FOIA, Privacy Act, Classification, and Records Management matters for the IC IG.

Process and review FOIA/PA requests and apply the appropriate FOIA exemptions, ensuring compliance with Federal laws, regulations, and policies and protecting privacy rights of individuals and IC IG equities.

Gather, prepare and review documents in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act (PA).

Ensure released materials do not contain personal identifiers or directly or indirectly reveal information exempted from disclosure under the applicable statutes.

Receive sensitive information and discern sources, methods, etc., to determine level of sensitivity and what requires redaction before public release.

Review various documents, make applicable redactions, and determine the appropriateness of materials to be released or not to be released.

Coordinate with ODNI/Information Management Office on all IC IG FOIA, PA, and classification related matters to ensure IC IG equities are addressed, including via negotiation with requesters.

Analyze and advise IC IG Leadership and Counsel on various FOIA and PA cases.

Coordinate with the IC IG Counsel team to compose response letters, clarify requests, negotiate additional response time, and make recommendations when necessary.

Lead compliance efforts for the IC IG to protect classified and sensitive information, and promote efficiency in the creation, classification, safeguarding, handling, use, and declassification of information.

Develop and oversee the IC IG's Records and Information Management Program, including administering the program to align with IC IG business and mission needs.

Modernize the IC IG's records management functions by managing the transition of IC IG paper records to electronic records.

Work with the IC IG Director of Technology and ODNI/Information Management Office on electronic recordkeeping requirements, records management applications, as well as technology challenges of accessing and maintaining records over time.

Establish and assess IC IG records management practices to ensure they support the principles of transparency and information sharing throughout the IC IG, ODNI, and Government while protecting IC IG equities.

Ensure compliance with ODNI's Information Security Program, collaborate and coordinate internally and externally to identify best practices in information security.

Analyze IC IG Records Management business processes and provide recommendations to improve workflow and create efficiencies by leveraging automated tools, systems, and technology.

Ensure that IC IG complies with law, policy, and regulations governing records management, including overseeing records file structures, providing advice to IC IG personnel on records management and retention compliance, and educating the workforce on these responsibilities.

Plan, direct, and orchestrate inter-agency and cross-directorate collaboration on the development of internal information sharing policies, guidelines, and procedures, and/or broker information sharing agreements with external entities; evaluate and assess these efforts to ensure that they are successful.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Broad knowledge of the mission, organization, and functions of the IC IG, ODNI, and IC.

Ability to foster trust within the IC IG and with colleagues, partners, and stakeholders.

Demonstrated ability to lead by example and exemplify IC IG core values of Integrity, Independence, Transparency, Accountability, and Diversity.

Demonstrated experience processing, reviewing and handling Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act Requests (PA).

Demonstrated knowledge of records management laws, regulations, rules, policies and procedures; the principles and concepts of information governance of various phases of records and information management; and the complete records process and content management framework that supports the entire lifecycle of agency records.

Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically, use judgement and make independent decisions.

Excellent written and verbal communication skills with the ability to conduct independent research, filter and synthesize data, and produce clear, logical, and concise products.

Demonstrated project management skills and ability to effectively multi-task and manage numerous projects simultaneously under tight deadlines with high-quality results.

Demonstrated ability to balance responsibilities among assigned activities; including the demonstrated ability to manage transitions effectively from task to task, and demonstrated adaptability to varying customer needs.

Strong interpersonal skills in establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with others.

Experience: Applicant must have at least four years of specialized experience. Specialized experience is defined as: Researching/evaluating documents for response to Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act (FOIA/PA) requests; Safeguarding sensitive information from unwarranted disclosures; Preparing supportive documents in response to FOIA/PA lawsuits; and Creating, disseminating, researching, storing and disposing of Federal records in accordance with Federal laws, regulation and guidance.

Education: Bachelor's degree from an accredited university.
