- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Assistant Director of National Intelligence for Policy and Strategy (OADNI/P&S) is responsible for developing and coordinating Intelligence Community (IC)-wide policy; setting IC strategy; overseeing and promoting responsible information sharing and safeguarding; managing the execution of the DNI's controlled access program responsibilities; and advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) on initiatives. P&S' overriding aim is to build a more integrated, collaborative, and secure community.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Information and Data reimagines the data and information landscape in light of our digital future, ensuring that the IC collects, creates protects, uses, shares, and manages data and information in a way that enables the IC to know, find, and use the information at the speed of relevance, and that the IC can continue to deliver the right data to the right people, at the right time, in the right form.

- Lead, oversee, plan, and develop the implementation of interagency information sharing activities and programs that coordinate and integrate the competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders.
- Provide leadership, oversight, and guidance in the preparation of briefings, reports, and presentations for ODNI leadership, senior policymakers, IC members and other intelligence consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.
- Support the Director of the Information Management Division (IMD) in managing the ODNI Information Management Program and the three IMD offices: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Classification/Pre-Publication Review, and Records.
- Oversee IMD staff, providing oversight, direction, guidance and support to IMD professional staff in order to facilitate efficient IMD Branch activities and achieve program success; assess staff performance, collaborate and establish goal setting, and provide feedback on personal development.
- Ensure the timely and accurate IMD response to ODNI and Executive Branch taskings, coordinating with inter- and intra-agency offices and subject matter experts as required.
- Represent the ODNI IMD office across the IC and Executive Branch Information Management community, participating in inter-agency venues, working groups and meetings.
- Provide oversight and leadership in the development and implementation of ODNI Information Management programs, policies, and procedures in order to facilitate the most effective operations within the Classification, Pre-Publication Review, Records Management, Freedom of Information Act disciplines.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Superior ability to communicate clearly, orally and in written reports and documents, policies, plans, and programs related to improving information sharing across the U.S. Government.
- Superior ability in developing effective professional and interpersonal relationships with peers and colleagues in ODNI, the IC, and U.S. Government, and to earn their confidence and trust.
- Superior-level interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a superior ability to work effectively at the highest levels within an interagency environment on complex issues requiring sensitive negotiations and consensus-building.
- Superior ability to balance responsibilities among assigned activities; including the ability to manage transitions effectively from task to task, and proven adaptability to varying customer needs.
- Expertise in one or several of the Information Management disciplines of classification, pre-publication review, records management or FOIA; familiarity with IC Agencies' Information Management offices and general practices.
- Familiarity with IC IT network systems and technical tools, and experience working with Chief Information Office, Data and IT offices in implementing or developing technical solutions.

Desired Requirements

None.
