Component Mission

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC). The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Enterprise Capacity (DDNI/EC) is responsible to the DNI for all matters pertaining to IC resources, workforce, systems, technology and infrastructure, with five reporting components: Acquisition, Procurement and Facilities, IC Chief Financial Officer, IC Chief Human Capital Officer, IC Chief Information Officer, and Systems & Resource Analyses.

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan, develop, and manage complex HC projects or programs that may require generating new concepts, principles, and methods to ensure their successful implementation within the IC.
- Advise IC and ODNI leadership on the development, implementation, and management of complex HC programs, and ensure that the programs are aligned with and directly support the IC's strategic mission objectives.
- Advise the IC on strategic workforce planning activities, be the liaison with the IC on critical skill requirements, and IC wide workforce initiatives.
- Develop strategic and tactical plans to support HC program initiatives and workforce assessments in support of the IC mission.
- Serve as a liaison; listen to and understand the needs of the organizations and tailor HC programs, methods, policies, and procedures to ensure they fully meet the organization's needs and overall mission.
- Plan, develop, and present written and oral briefings on significant HC issues supporting the IC mission.
- Provide direction to ODNI and/or IC managers in program planning, design, development, and implementation in strategic workforce planning; data analysis, and reporting;
- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with IC HC leadership, colleagues, HR experts, and ODNI senior leadership to share information of interest, explain the specifics of HC programs and, when appropriate, present, justify, defend, negotiate, and/or settle matters involving significant issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of at least three of the following: Programming and Planning for the budget to include Congressional Budget Justification of Intelligence Programming and Budgeting Submission; Strategic Workforce Planning; Data Science and Statistical Analysis; Workforce Budget Analysis; Organizational Design; Talent Management; Manpower Planning; or Policy Development.

- Demonstrated expert ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing. Presents information in a clear, concise manner that meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives, and encourages the formation of integrated solutions and positions. Able to develop and deliver briefings to senior leaders and staff.
- Demonstrated strong organizational and interpersonal problem solving skills, and ability to work effectively both independently and in a team environment. Demonstrated ability to establish regular contact with senior leadership and customers, supplying or seeking information on programs and issues.
- Demonstrated program management, analytic and critical thinking skills, including the ability to conduct program assessments, identify needs and requirements.
- Superior oral and written communication skills and demonstrated success conveying complex information to IC senior leaders and managers, and Congressional staffers.

Desired Requirements

- Knowledge of the Office of the Director of National Intelligence and the larger Intelligence Community mission, operations, tradecraft and capabilities.
- Knowledge and experience with HC principles, concepts, regulations, and practices, and demonstrated consultative skills sufficient to plan and manage HC functions for large-scale ODNI and/or IC programs.
- Demonstrated capability to effectively manage HC projects, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, recommend improvements, and mitigate risks.
