After each two-week cut-off point, all compliant applications received to include applicants from previous submission cut-off points will be reviewed for consideration.

Component Mission

National Security Partnerships synchronizes IC support and whole of government efforts with federal, state and local governments, the private sector and the Department of Defense, ensuring IC outreach is coordinated, timely and relevant. It also provides key leadership for activities in four domains that operate across national sectors – aviation, maritime, space and cyber -- bringing the IC's activities in these domains into alignment, and facilitating coordinated engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC and with the rest of the federal government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead and manage the daily operations of the directorate, ensuring it is responsive to all inquiries and providing quality, timely, and thoughtful input.
- Collaborate with senior officials to ensure strategic alignment with the mission, goals, and objectives of the directorate and the ODNI.
- Maintain situational awareness on all issues before the Directorate, to represent DD or ADDNI in substantive meetings, engagements, or events when necessary.
- Build effective, productive, and collaborative relationships with your counterparts in the ODNI to facilitate a corporate approach to ODNI business activities.
- Maintain effective working relationships within the directorate, as well as with outside stakeholders to address issues that span multiple mission or program areas.
- Oversee, manage, and guide the directorate's complex personnel mix (including both ODNI cadre and detailees/assignees from across the IC and policy communities and contractors), as well as all budget, facility and logistic requirements and actions.
- Oversee and guide the directorate's use and implementation of shared services for the benefit of all directorate components.

- Provide direct support to the DDNI and ADDNI on a myriad of complex issues, activities and programs that affect the entire IC; lead special projects that span across the IC, as needed.
- Lead and provide guidance and direction to the front office team on a variety programs and DNI initiatives.
- Direct the development and implementation of controls and policies to provide guidance to management officials, and coordinate internal and external initiatives to ensure alignment with key intelligence priorities.
- Develop, evaluate, and analyze project proposals and action plans; determine impact on current resources and future needs.
- Oversee staffing levels of the directorate, implementing effective personnel practices across the directorate.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Excellent organizational, managerial, and leadership skills, including ability to effectively manage the professional development of staff employees.
- Demonstrated knowledge or experience in program and project management, or business administration, and the ability to manage complex strategic tasks and daily business operations.
- Extensive knowledge of both the IC and ODNI budgetary requirements, personnel regulations, and resource allocations policies and procedures.
- Strong strategic and tactical planning, critical thinking, and analytical skills required to propose innovative solutions and implement change with resourcefulness and creativity.
- Proven ability to coordinate, network, communicate and exert influence effectively at all levels across the ODNI and IC.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, including the ability to clearly convey complex information to audiences of all levels.
