- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

National Security Partnerships synchronizes IC support and whole of government efforts with federal, state and local governments, the private sector and the Department of Defense, ensuring IC outreach is coordinated, timely and relevant. It also provides key leadership for activities in four domains that operate across national sectors – aviation, maritime, space and cyber -- bringing the IC's activities in these domains into alignment, and facilitating coordinated engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC and with the rest of the federal government.

Office Mission

The Office of the Assistant Director of National Intelligence for IC-DOD Coordination (ADNI/IC-DOD) serves as ODNI lead for identifying and addressing complex IC-DOD enterprise issues critical to U.S. and allied military readiness, planning and operations. It serves to synchronize and focus ODNI and IC engagement with the Department. Office focus is to achieve holistic IC-DOD solutions to current and future shortfalls in intelligence support to modern warfare. The office coordinates extensively across the ODNI, the IC and the Department to meet its mission.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Strengthen partnerships and engagement opportunities with the OUSDI, the Joint Staff J2, Combatant Commands, Combat Support Agencies, and the Military Services to identify emerging issues that relate to IC enterprise capability to support the Department.
- Build and sustain strong internal partnerships across the ODNI and Centers to ensure early awareness and collaboration on the most pressing IC-DOD issues.
- Develop and maintain a network of IC-DOD subject matter experts. Provide subject matter expertise to support DNI and PDDNI engagements with U.S. military officials.
- Leverage appropriate ODNI, Center and DOD expertise to augment subject matter expertise.
- Oversee, lead, and guide discussions to ensure ODNI senior leadership maintains a comprehensive awareness of modern warfare requirements.
- Facilitate DOD briefings that address defense strategic planning and priorities. Educate and enable coordinated, complementary IC-DOD efforts.
• Plan, develop, and present briefings, meeting guidance, reports, and other IC-DOD related information to ODNI and Defense Intelligence Enterprise (DIE) leadership, senior policymakers, and other senior U.S. Government officials.

• Plan, develop, and oversee cross-organizational/interagency activities and programs to strengthen understanding of the ODNI, IC, and DIE challenges, contribute to solving issues, and to ensure effective cooperation and collaboration.

• Provide oversight of and direction to the U.S. Military DNI Representatives and assist with the administration of the U.S. Military DNI Representatives Program.

• Assist in the alignment of Representatives’ responsibilities to those of the ODNI, and ensure the DNI Rep effectively leverages the collective expertise of the National Intelligence Agency Representatives at the Commands.

• Participate in the development/refinement and execution of the IC-DOD Coordination strategic engagement plan, which identifies and synchronizes existing and future engagements critical to addressing the most pressing IC enterprise readiness gaps relative to supporting the Department of Defense.

• Expand ODNI strategic outreach to those DOD organizations at the forefront of U.S. and Allied intelligence doctrine development, to include the military services and DOD War Colleges. Plan, prepare, and present briefings, reports, and presentations to ODNI leadership, senior policymakers, IC members, and other intelligence consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

• Demonstrated experience in and familiarity with a range of IC and DOD challenges including National and Defense Intelligence Enterprise operations and relationships with allied military partners.

• Demonstrated ability to develop plans addressing engagements involving the IC and DOD, taking into consideration a diverse range of options for IC and DOD decision makers.

• Solid experience negotiation and leveraging IC-DOD professional networks.

• Experience in effectively leading cross ODNI and IC teams tasked in solving complex intelligence challenges with significant DOD equities.

• Demonstrated leadership and management experience, and possess the ability to work collaboratively and corporately.

• Demonstrated ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

• Strong interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including the ability to work independently or collaboratively on a team.
• Solid experience building and leveraging IC-DOD professional networks to achieve results.
• Experience in developing options and recommendations for senior-level decision makers.

Minimal Requirements:
• Experience: 10 years with a combination of assignments in both the IC and the DOD.
• Education: Bachelor’s degree

Desired Requirements
• Prior military experience and/or experience working in a DOD element such as the USDI, the Joint Staff, a Combatant Command, the Services, or a Combat Support Agency.
