Component Mission:

The Policy and Capabilities Directorate is focused on ensuring the IC is best postured to meet the future challenges and threats confronting our nation.

The DNI serves as the head of the IC. The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President, the National Security Council, and the Homeland Security Council for intelligence matters related to the national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program.

The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Policy and Capabilities Directorate advances the integration of mission priorities and requirements across the IC to develop and implement strategy, policies, and capabilities to meet future challenges and opportunities in support of our Nation's security.

The Office of Policy and Strategy (P&S) is responsible for developing and coordinating Intelligence Community (IC)-wide policy; publishing the National Intelligence Strategy; overseeing foreign disclosure and release; and advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) on hostage and detainee affairs. P&S sets the strategy and policy framework, enabling the IC's ability to deliver timely, accurate, relevant intelligence support and capabilities to stay ahead of opportunities and risks in our complex global and technological environments.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Lead and oversee staff in the formulation, development, negotiation, production, and evaluation of a broad range of policies, processes, and guidance on subject areas including mission enabling functions, and intelligence oversight disciplines and communicate these policies, processes, and guidelines to ODNI and Intelligence Community stakeholders.

Lead, initiate, cultivate, and sustain productive working relationships with ODNI and IC peers, substantive experts, IC points of contact and policy committees; use these relationships in furtherance of the DNI/COO IC/ODNI policy agenda and policy development; continuously share information with IPAG members and key IC/ODNI policy stakeholders.
Lead development of ODNI policy, supporting Chief/Policy Group interaction with COO and the policy development and coordination process across Directorates/Centers/Offices, including accountable officials, subject matter experts, and the IMB.

Lead and oversee staff in the review and analysis of policies, processes, and guidelines that are contained in United States Government (U.S.) Government and Intelligence Community (IC) Directives, Policy Guidance, Standards, plans, and memoranda to ensure equities are captured and relevant concerns are resolved.

Oversee, lead, foster, and promote communications that increase stakeholders', consumers', IC colleagues', and U.S. Government partners' overall understanding of USG, IC, and ODNI policies, processes, and procedures in order to best promote mission effectiveness.

Lead and direct the development of substantive intelligence briefings, presentations, reports, and other materials to inform senior leadership and other major stakeholders on policy issues.

Lead and oversee staff in communicating policy needs, trends, and developments relative to organizational leadership, senior policymakers, and other senior U.S. Government officials.

Lead and oversee staff in the planning and preparation of communications and reports that address Executive Branch taskings and Congressional hearings; direct staff in the production and coordination of executive-level briefings; represent organizational equities to the IC and other government agencies at meetings, conferences, and other public fora.

Lead the planning, management, and deployment of resources including budget, staffing, IT support, and/or space allocations in order to successfully complete assignments; assess staff performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting, develop and execute a training plan for employees, and provide feedback on professional development.

Mandatory Requirements:

Expert knowledge of ODNI, IC, and related U.S. Government policies, directives, and standard operating procedures and superior ability to develop a broad range of ODNI and IC-wide policies, processes, and guidelines.

Expert knowledge of the U.S. Government and its IC components, missions, and interrelationships and experience working either with or in a major U.S. Government or IC organization; superior understanding of the authorities, roles, and responsibilities of the organizations within the IC community

Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including superior ability to work both independently and in a collaborative environment effectively with senior officials, management, teams, IC-wide working groups, and colleagues.

Expert knowledge of and superior experience in the research, formulation, development, and coordination of national level policies and directives, including expert knowledge of qualitative and/or quantitative methods for policy development and assessment.
Expert ability to apply knowledge of ODNI and IC organizations and relevant customer organizations or operations (e.g., intelligence disciplines, military, policymakers, and law enforcement) in order to effectively address their national intelligence requirements and provide appropriate policy responses to meet IC needs.

Superior written and oral communication skills with expert ability to articulate complex intelligence issues to a wide audience, including the ability to write policy or analytic products for the senior U.S. Government officials and the IC workforce.

Expert ability to build and sustain professional networks and collaborate with both management and staff to continuously improve community relationships, products, and services.

Expert project leadership capabilities, including the ability to effectively coordinate business processes, deliver within time constraints, manage competing priorities, and adjust quickly to deal with time sensitive requirements.

Expert ability to direct taskings, assess and manage performance, collaborate on goal setting, and support personal and professional development at all levels of personnel.
