Component Mission:

The Office of the Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Strategy and Engagement (S&E) is responsible for aligning the Intelligence Community’s current focus with future strategies to drive national security outcomes. S&E positions the IC to achieve the future vision by leading transformative initiatives and cutting-edge research and development; supporting and spurring innovations; re-imagining data management in the digital age; establishing clear policy direction; and actively engaging with senior policymakers and the public.

The Intelligence Advanced Research Projects Activity (IARPA) is an independent activity within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), aligned with the office of Strategy & Engagement. IARPA invests in high-risk, high-payoff research that has the potential to provide our nation with an overwhelming intelligence advantage. IARPA addresses cross-agency challenges, drives ground breaking research and development in support of our future strategies, enhances innovation across the breadth of IC activities, and allows the IC to take advantage of cutting-edge technology, resulting in critical advances that propel the IC forward. IARPA accomplishes this by leveraging expertise from across academia, industry and the IC Community, and works transition strategies and plans with agency partners.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

Manage ongoing working relationships and expectations with customers, stakeholders, users, and decision authorities throughout the program life cycle.

Provide leadership and management of IARPA's collaborative relationships with other government organizations including U.S. Government entities as well as foreign partners, under the scope of interagency agreements, Memoranda of Understanding (MOU), and Memoranda of Agreement (MOA).

Serve as a business liaison between IARPA internal functional teams and external partners. Conduct outreach to support execution of agreements and improved business operations.

Draft, process, and monitor performance under agreements with government partners in accordance with agreement provisions, governing statutes, regulations and ODNI policy.

- Develop terms and conditions for agreements to ensure they support IARPA mission. Ensure agreements are reviewed, approved and executed by duly authorized IARPA and ODNI staff, including IARPA leadership, security and general counsel.

- Build coalitions to support effective and efficient execution.
Coordinate with functional teams to ensure agreement terms support mission and are amended, as appropriate to support enduring partnerships.

Monitor and track agreements prior to execution and throughout their terms.

Analyze complex multi-tiered acquisition and acquisition management processes. Provide in-depth assessment and recommendations for procedure implementation, establishment of best practices, and verification of compliance.

Spearhead partner engagement to support on-going relationships. Engage with organizations as required to address schedule, cost and risk associated with IARPA research programs. Manage funding status on agreements; coordinate with partners for de-obligation and processing of payments.

Develop and maintain current training tools and guides for execution of agreements in accordance with governing statutes, regulations and ODNI policy.

Serve as Contracting Officer's Representative for multiple agreements. Support Research Program Teams in monitoring of cost, schedule, and risk.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements:

Demonstrable experience with developing and managing US Government Interagency transactional agreements.

Knowledge of U.S. Government acquisition and contracting regulations (FAR, DFARS) and procedures sufficient to monitor and oversee interagency agreements.

Strong oral and written communication skills and demonstrated ability to conduct independent research, filter and synthesize data, and produce clear, logical, and concise products.

Ability to manage competing priorities while maintaining a high-level of attention to detail in a dynamic, fast-paced environment.

Ability to develop and maintain effective working relationships.

Bachelor’s degree that includes 24 semester hours in any combination of accounting, business finance, law, contracts, purchasing, economics, industrial/management, marketing, quantitative methods, or organizational management.

Presently hold, or have held within the past year, a TS/SCI Clearance with CI polygraph

Desired Requirements:

Credentialed COR or COTR Level 2 or higher, according to Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA), Central Intelligence Agency, other Government agency or equivalent industry standards

Experience negotiating agreements governed by statute, regulation or policy.

Experience with a technology transfer, commercialization, or U.S., Government Program Executive Office function.

Experience with working with legal counsel on matters of compliance.
