Component Mission

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC). The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Enterprise Capacity (DDNI/EC) is responsible to the DNI for all matters pertaining to IC resources, workforce, systems, technology and infrastructure, with five reporting components: Acquisition, Procurement and Facilities, IC Chief Financial Officer, IC Chief Human Capital Officer, IC Chief Information Officer, and Systems & Resource Analyses.

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Deliver entry, mid, and senior executive-level programs (as assigned) for the IC workforce.
- Ensure that curricula, content, and program agenda support IC priorities.
- Serve as an instructional facilitator using synchronous and asynchronous (online) instruction for interagency teams of students and for in-class plenary sessions and student working groups.
- Oversee projects with colleagues to enhance approved curricula, design innovative teaching methods, and strategies to engage students through both online and in-class venues.
- Lead assessments of program content, in-class sessions, and student projects and make substantive changes when warranted to ensure program relevancy and currency.
- Assist stakeholders and ILN affiliate members as appropriate.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of the IC and knowledge of the ODNI organization.
- Expert ability to collaborate both internally and externally across organizations in a fast-paced national level environment.
- Experience in delivering, assessing and improving learning and professional development programs, including curriculum development/instructional design, and the ability to translate workforce development needs based on IC missions, into high-quality, high-impact instructional and learning programs.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements con't

- Expertise using instructional technology and the Blackboard learning management system.
- Strong oral and written communication skills and demonstrated success in student engagement with instructional methods that address a variety of learning styles, including collaborative techniques.

Desired Requirements

- Master's degree in a field related to education or national security.
