 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC). The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Enterprise Capacity (DDNI/EC) is responsible to the DNI for all matters pertaining to IC resources, workforce, systems, technology and infrastructure, with five reporting components: Acquisition, Procurement and Facilities, IC Chief Financial Officer, IC Chief Human Capital Officer, IC Chief Information Officer, and Systems & Resource Analyses.

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as a program manager for the IC Civilian Joint Duty Program in CHCO's Joint Duty Program Office, assisting in the development and implementation of policies and initiatives to enhance collaboration and integration by expanding opportunities for IC personnel to benefit from joint duty qualifying experiences.
- Assist with program oversight of relevant HC practices and procedures and the collection of related metrics to ensure IC elements are making progress towards Joint Duty program goals, to include facilitating opportunities for expanded participation by IC personnel.
- Assist with planning and preparation for recurring IC Civilian Joint Duty Community of Practice meetings and IC Civilian Joint Duty Opportunity Fairs, working in close coordination with other IC element joint duty program managers.
- Plan and coordinate the preparation of analysis, correspondence, and briefing papers, as well as the execution of innovative communications strategies designed to increase visibility and further promote Joint Duty rotations for IC personnel.
- Identify resources needed for program areas through the development of resource proposals and spend plans, and execution reports.

- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with IC HC leadership, other Joint Duty program managers, office colleagues, HR experts, and ODNI senior leadership to effectively address their concerns, and, when appropriate, present, justify, defend, negotiate, and/or settle matters involving significant issues.
- Represent and share information about the IC Civilian Joint Duty Program to IC personnel attending training and development courses, as requested by the Chief, IC Civilian Joint Duty Program.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- General understanding of the IC Civilian Joint Duty program and Federal human resources policies and practices emphasizing occupational structures, relationships, and competencies.
- Proven ability to plan, design, develop, and implement innovative and complex strategies and solutions in a multi-agency environment.
- Outstanding interpersonal skills and the ability to work effectively, independently, and in a team or collaborative environment, to include interfacing with government senior level officials as well as IC personnel interested in qualifying joint duty experiences.
- Extensive analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically and identify needs, requirements, and develop structured recommendations and solutions

Desired Requirements

- General understanding of the IC Civilian Joint Duty program and Federal human resources policies and practices emphasizing occupational structures, relationships, and competencies.
