- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) acts as the principal interface between the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) (and the Intelligence Community [IC] on certain issues) and Congress. Its charge is to facilitate the implementation of those sections of the National Security Act of 1947, which stipulate that the heads of the IC agencies shall “keep the congressional intelligence committees fully and currently informed of all intelligence activities of the United States.” OLA officers provide strategic-level advice to the DNI, Principal Deputy DNI, and other senior ODNI and IC officials regarding engagements with Congress. Also, in partnership with the IC, OLA provides strategic-level coordination of those national security and intelligence issues and initiatives that require an integrated IC policy, position, or action.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Liaise between the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) and the US Congress regarding plans, policies, procedures, and the evaluation of current and future budgetary and policy needs of the ODNI and the IC.
- Advocate in support of ODNI with Congress and the IC. Develop and maintain an effective congressional training program in coordination with ISD principals and OPM standards and requirements
- Develop and maintain relationships with the ODNI congressional oversight committees in order to build and strengthen relationships with professional staffers and increase information sharing practices with Congress
- Interact with educational and academic training centers to ensure ODNI is in compliance with current congressional oversight techniques, practices, and requirements for IC production
- Establish a Congressional Training Program both online and classroom versions to instruct ODNI Cadre on nuances, operating requirements, and best practices on presenting information to Congress
- Develop training plans and schedules, designing and developing training programs (outsourced or in-house) for corporate ODNI structure, and Capitol Hill Familiarization
- Design annual training plans for management, Talent Management, and ODNI training office and research and recommend new training methods, like gamification
- Select appropriate training methods or activities (e.g. simulations, mentoring, on-the-job training, and professional development classes)
- Market available training to employees and provide necessary information about sessions

- Conduct organization-wide training needs assessment and identify skills or knowledge gaps that need to be addressed
- Use known education principles and stay up-to-date on new training methods and techniques and design, prepare and order educational aids and materials
- Host train-the-trainer sessions for internal subject matter experts to add new instructors
- Manage and maintain in-house training guide-books and materials/equipment, updated curriculum database and training records

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge of ODNI, IC, U.S. Congress, congressional committees, and congressional liaison activities.
- knowledge of trends and developments of proposed and existing legislation with the potential to affect the ODNI and the IC relative to the intelligence mission, extensive knowledge of the views of individual members of Congress and the agenda of congressional committees.
- Master's Degree in Public Policy or related field and with emphasis on U.S. congressional operations
- Graduate of Academic Instructor School with a minimal of eight years of classroom instruction at the collegiate level
- Minimum of seven years of congressional liaison experience with at least three at the headquarters level preparing senior leaders for congressional testimony
- Ability to research, develop, and prepare lessons plans and training materials in a clear and concise manner to train personnel on nuances of working with Congress
- Experience with various training methods, including on-the-job coaching, mentorship programs and e-learning. Experience with different projects, to include management training and soft-skills development.
- Demonstrated ability to develop and implement ODNI's congressional strategy to improve the effectiveness and responsiveness of ODNI and the IC in communicating with and informing Congress of its activities, issues, plans and programs.
- Analytical and critical thinking skills including demonstrated ability to think strategically.
- Interpersonal organizational and problem solving skills with demonstrated ability to interact with members of Congress and with senior IC and ODNI officials.
- Oral and written communication skills including demonstrated ability to tactfully convey complex information and ideas to members of Congress, congressional committees, and their staffs.
- Familiarity with the instructors, equipment and educational material requirements for congressional engagement personnel development.
- Ability to think of and design engaging ways to train employees on Congress role in overseeing the IC

Desired Requirements

- Experience planning congressional hearings, briefings, and official correspondence
- Extensive experience in advising and influencing senior officials in the U.S. Government, particularly in responding to critical congressional inquiries
