Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal candidate to fill a GS-14 cadre position.
- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
 - Current ODNI permanent cadre.
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Manage multiple contracts, task orders, and/or OGA transfers.
- Prepare statements of work (SOW), acquisition plans, evaluation criteria, market research/market surveys, and sole-source justifications, and prepare contracting material for approval.
- Communicate project plans and schedules based on a clear understanding of customer requirements and information on project cost, schedule, quality, and performance; estimate costs and resources; implement budget activities and cost estimates for future projects.
- Coordinate the translation of technical intelligence requirements into viable contract deliverables.
- Prepare and submit documentation for OGA Transfers.
- Submit and request approval of contracting invoices, and manage contracting data (cost, execution rates, renewal dates, and total full-time equivalents) and deliverables.
- Maintain records in accordance with established COTR standards, and in accordance with auditability requirements.
- Provide guidance, oversight, and training to other part-time COTR's in the organization. Assist the Business Office with contract related taskings, including unliquidated obligation reports and transaction audits.
- Perform critical reviews of Program-specific Assessment measures or resource alternatives for assigned Programs and/or mission objectives, and make recommendations.
- Examine, analyze, develop and present a variety of performance results, resource adjustment recommendations, briefings, and other pertinent communications.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated ability to develop and effectively manage multiple projects, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and manage and mitigate risks.
- Demonstrated program management, analytic, and critical thinking skills, including the ability to conduct program assessments, identify needs and requirements, and develop process improvement recommendations.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

- Demonstrated knowledge of contracting principles and procedures sufficient to manage contracts for a variety of specialized services.
- Ability to understand requirements and work with technical representatives in defining needs.
- Demonstrated knowledge of price and cost analysis.
- Demonstrated superior organizational and interpersonal skills specifically, the ability to plan strategically and manage competing priorities, the ability to negotiate, build consensus, and work effectively in a collaborative environment, and the ability to establish and maintain professional networks across all levels of management both internal and external.
- Demonstrated superior oral and written communication skills.

Desired Requirements

- Current or recent COTR experience. Education: Bachelor's degree or higher in any field. Certifications/Licenses: Successful certification as an Agency's Contracting Officer's Technical Representative or equivalent standards.
