- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Build partnerships with IC agencies and external IC customers to build IC-wide metrics capabilities, receive data, and strengthen feedback measurements to enable IC-wide analytics to inform strategic planning and resource allocation decisions.

Implement and institutionalize a framework to collect and analyze quantitative and qualitative metrics of the Intelligence Community's performance across multiple mission sets. Lead collaboration with relevant stakeholders and ensure appropriate and effective engagement.

Develop and lead IC-wide communities of interest to identify existing sources of relevant data to advance the IC ability to measure value. When data is lacking, work with stakeholders to collect required data.

Work with data science subject matter experts to identify, access, and analyze data in support of performance measurement efforts.

Develop background papers, talking points, and other products to support senior-level engagements on metrics efforts to help inform programmatic decisions.

Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with IC stakeholders, colleagues, and users to analyze systems and operations performance metrics, reporting requirements, and exchange knowledge and leverage information sharing techniques regarding current and proposed programs.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Demonstrated ability to conduct external outreach and to build communities of interest.

Demonstrated experience in executing IC studies, assessments, or evaluations, or in performance measurement.

Excellent oral and written communication skills, including the ability to exert influence with senior leadership and policy makers, and communicate complex thoughts and arguments to others, both internal and external to the organization.

Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

Demonstrated ability to collaborate and innovate to solve problems.

Experience demonstrating insight into the IC's structure, roles and responsibilities, and intelligence capabilities.

Desired Requirements

Experience writing reports and creating visualization products for executive (DEXCOM level) presentation of analysis and findings.

Demonstrated experience in one or more intelligence disciplines (HUMINT, SIGINT, GEOINT, MASINT, OSINT or all-source analysis).
