Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government’s counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- As Deputy NCIO for Russia, Europe, and Eurasia, support other NCSC components, ODNI, and IC agencies as applicable by leading national CI campaigns and initiatives focused on protecting the United States against intelligence threats emanating from Russia/Europe/Eurasia, to include: leading analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to identify and counter foreign intelligence threats to the US; leading the IC in assessing progress against CI priorities and gaps; leading the development of solutions to address CI capability needs; and integrating CI into national decisionmaking.

- Lead annual CI Community threat prioritization initiatives for the Russia/Europe/Eurasia portfolio. Collaborate with NCSC counterparts on the implementation of the National CI strategy/Roadmap, CI mission reviews, and evaluation of key gaps; advance the mission objectives of the National CI Strategy, National Intelligence Strategy, and Unifying Intelligence Strategy for CI.

- Brief senior policy and IC officials and other major stakeholders on foreign intelligence threats, priorities, and gaps related to the Russia/Europe/Eurasia portfolio.

- Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information of interest, coordinate joint actions, and ensure alignment of programs, procedures, and guidelines; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on Russia/Europe/Eurasia issues.
• Recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse collaborative networks with the ODNI and across the IC and routinely engage IC counterparts to ensure effective integration.

• Develop and continually expand personal knowledge in counterintelligence and achieve a government-wide reputation as a force for integration.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

• Expert knowledge of IC analysis and collection sufficient to lead Russia/Europe/Eurasia counterintelligence (CI) initiatives and identify CI-related analytic and collection requirements and gaps.

• Knowledge of and experience in the intelligence cycle.

• Excellent written, oral communication, and critical thinking skills, as demonstrated by the ability to articulate complex issues to a wide audience and develop products for the senior USG officials.

• Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills; ability to build and leverage professional networks; and, ability to work effectively both independently and in a team/collaborative environment.

• Ability to handle taskings, assess and manage performance, and collaborate on goal setting.

Desired Requirements

• Knowledge of counterintelligence issues and/or experience working with the IC’s Russia/Europe/Eurasia community.

• Previous intelligence mission management experience.

• One year equivalent to at least next lower grade level in the normal line of progression.

• Bachelor’s degree or equivalent experience in mission specialty area.
