Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs):

The National Counterterrorism Center's Directorate of Intelligence, is looking for an enthusiastic and collaborative analyst to augment our effort to assist in the recovery of US hostages held overseas and to craft analysis on global kidnapping threats and trends for senior US policymakers. This is an issue of continuing high importance for NCTC and the US Government, and the DI is looking for an analyst who can help us support policymakers, the military, and other IC entities as we grapple with a dynamic and challenging issue.

- Perform in-depth analyses of complex and significant national, regional, and/or global issues for senior policymakers and key components in the Intelligence Community (IC), the Defense Enterprise, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI).
- Develop and produce a broad range of finished intelligence products in support of United States (US) foreign policy and national security interests.
- Prepare and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant intelligence issues.
- Utilize a variety of methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of complex and significant analytic issues and incorporate insights and findings into well-crafted, sophisticated intelligence products.
- Maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information of interest; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on broad or more strategic subject areas.
- Build and leverage diverse collaborative networks within the ODNI and across the IC.
- Develop and continually expand personal knowledge in area of expertise.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements:

- Demonstrated ability to quickly and effectively research, develop, and produce high-quality, complex analyses, studies, projects, assignments, and briefings, sometimes under pressure and short deadlines.
- Strong critical thinking skills and demonstrated use of structured analytic techniques, ability to think strategically, detail-oriented work habits.
- Demonstrated ability to be flexible and work effectively alone or in a collaborative environment; creative problem-solving skills and initiative in carrying out mission responsibilities based on senior-level guidance.
- Demonstrated ability to remain open-minded and change opinions on the basis of new information and requirements; ability to support and defend group decisions and assessments, accept and incorporate feedback, solicit opinions from coworkers and collaborate on a variety of assignments.
- Demonstrated ability to express complex ideas and insights verbally to a variety of audiences. Ability to communicate effectively and maintain regular contact with peers, management, and counterparts across the USG.
- In addition to their resume, applicants should submit a 1-2 page qualifications statement that aligns their experience and skills to the requirements listed here. Applicants are strongly encouraged to provide an analytic writing sample and recent performance reviews as well.

Desired Requirements:

- Previous work or educational experience on terrorism or related knowledge on political, cultural, social, historical, intelligence, military and or terrorism related subject matter.
- Experience working on issues related to hostage and personnel recovery and the US Government hostage recovery enterprise.
