Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal candidate to fill a GS-15 cadre position.
- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Current GS employees at the same grade as the advertised position grade may apply.

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
 - Current ODNI permanent cadre.
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade as the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- This position is located in the Directorate of Strategic and Operational Planning.
- Manage office day-to-day group operations concerning personnel, training, budget, contract administration policies and procedures, as well as information technology, facilities, equipment, and logistics to foster successful achievement of the group's mission.
- Lead and oversee professional staff in the development, integration, and review of counterterrorism strategies and planning efforts in coordination and collaboration within the United States Government (USG) Interagency.
- Lead staff in the implementation of interagency counterterrorism plans by facilitating the coordination and integration of the competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders; plan and participate in interagency meetings.
- Lead staff in the planning, preparation, and presentation of briefings, reports, and presentations to NCTC leadership, senior policymakers, National Security Council Staff, and other USG consumers.
- Provide oversight and leadership to staff in the coordination and integration of interagency and cross-directorate collaboration on programs and objectives; continually review these efforts to ensure their success.
- Provide oversight and leadership to staff in the sharing of information and knowledge within NCTC and with other government agencies, and effectively recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

- Develop and continually expand personal expertise in facilitating the cooperation and effective coordination of organizations within NCTC, the Intelligence Community, and the Interagency.
- Lead a team of professional staff and assess performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal development.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert ability to develop innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative and making key contributions to group and directorate efforts.
- Expert ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences to include senior-level policymakers.
- Expert ability to lead interagency planning efforts for complex interagency projects, taking into account a diverse range of considerations and ensuring that the activities can be successfully completed.

Desired Requirements

- Experience working on Middle East regional counterterrorism or security issues.
- Knowledge of the USG interagency and national security teams.
- Experience can come from military deployments to the region, graduate school studies, significant undergraduate college focus, or practical expertise.
