- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs):

- At the direction of the National Security Council, conduct assessments of progress toward lines of effort within the National Strategy for Counterterrorism; and develop innovative and actionable proposals for decision at the senior and national policymaking level.
- Engage U.S. Government partners on strategic priorities, programs, opportunities, gaps, and interdependencies to link resources to strategy; communicate emerging strategic issues and trends, evaluate them in the context of U.S. Government plans, and make recommendations for improvements.
- Brief senior USG policymakers and IC leaders on the results of assessments to inform whole-of-government planning processes.
- Plan, develop and present findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to ODNI senior management.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements:

- Demonstrated organizational and interpersonal skills to facilitate diverse forums, manage competing priorities and advocate new ideas/concepts/processes; demonstrated ability to exercise independent judgment on time-sensitive issues and work collaboratively across the IC and/or interagency.
- Demonstrated ability to apply analytic, quantitative, and qualitative techniques to analyze, evaluate, and recommend appropriate alternatives to complex issues.
- Demonstrated ability to conceptualize, organize, and draw inferences from incomplete data and present a compelling analysis of findings and issues.

- Demonstrated ability to identify, articulate, document, and mitigate knowledge gaps or alternative approaches.
- Demonstrated ability to develop effective professional and interpersonal relationships with peers and colleagues in the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), the IC, and U.S. Government and to earn their confidence and trust.
- Ability to be proactive, maintain flexibility, and sustain momentum in changing or amorphous environments.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, to include senior-level officials.
