Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs):

• Lead a team of professional staff and assess performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal development.

• Oversee and direct staff in the development of complex strategy and planning efforts for area of responsibility in coordination and collaboration with other U.S. Government agencies.

• Lead the monitoring and the implementation of interagency plans by coordinating and integrating competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders; plan and participate in interagency meetings.

• Manage the identification of gaps and impediments that are negatively impacting successful plan implementation efforts and develop solid and well-researched recommendations for policies/procedures designed to reduce these gaps.

• Establish, plan, prepare, and present integrated analysis, briefings, reports, and presentations to Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) leadership, senior policymakers,
National Security Staff, and other U.S. Government consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.

- Establish plan, promote, and share information and knowledge within ODNI and with other government agencies and foreign partners, and effectively recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

- Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, military, law enforcement, and S&T agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information of interest.

- Develop close working relationships with partners across the Intelligence, Defense, and Law Enforcement Communities, and provide effective and aggressive whole of government mission management through the development, synchronization, and support of the partners’ requirements.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements:

- Superior ability to remain open-minded, flexible, and change opinions on the basis of new information and requirements; superior ability to support group decisions and solicit opinions from coworkers.

- Expert ability to direct taskings, assess and manage performance, collaborate on goal setting, and support personal and professional development of all levels of personnel.

- Expert knowledge and experience with planning processes, critical analysis, consensus building, as well as the application and integration of all instruments of national power in protecting the U.S. and its interests abroad.

- Superior ability to plan and coordinate the integration of existing and emerging interagency capabilities to accomplish mission objectives.

- Superior ability to develop innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative and making key contributions to group efforts.

- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

- Superior ability to lead interagency planning efforts for complex interagency projects, taking into account a diverse range of considerations and ensuring that the activities can be successfully completed.

- Expert level understanding of the missions, authorities, and requirements of partners in the Intelligence, Defense, and Law Enforcement Communities.
