Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Assistant Director of National Intelligence for Systems and Resource Analyses (ADNI/SRA) is the principle staff assistant and advisor to the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) on matters pertaining to program analyses, evaluation, and resource allocation through independent analyses and advice relevant to the National Intelligence Program (NIP) and the Military Intelligence Program. As the principle advisor to the DNI on these matters, the ADNI/SRA analyzes, evaluates, and provides alternative plans, programs, and budgets for DNI priority objectives, projected threats, estimated costs, and resource constraints.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Draft Statements of Capabilities, Analytic Issue Papers, and Capability Requirements Policy and Instructions.
- Support policy interfaces and relationships with Department of Defense (DoD) Joint Capability Integration and Development System, Intelligence Community(IC) Acquisition Model, Independent Cost Estimate Policy and Intelligence Planning, Programming, Budgeting and Evaluation.
- Maintain insight and understanding of customer requirements related to intelligence gaps and non-material solutions.
- Maintain cognizance of intelligence capability gaps, potential mission or enterprise needs and intelligence capability proposals.
- Plan, and execute studies and performance modeling of proposed IC capabilities.
- Assess and evaluate the quality of analysis and ensure competitive and alternative analyses are conducted on topics related to capability requirements and non-material solutions. • Support the IC program and resource allocation process by supporting the development of strategic resource management plans and strategies, program and systems analysis, and independent evaluations of programs and resources related to both the National Intelligence Program (NIP) and Military Intelligence Program (MIP).

- Analyze mission effectiveness of proposed NIP and MIP funded capability requirements through strategic planning, independent analyses, and program evaluation.
- Analyze data to support the development of alternative approaches for IC programs, requirements, and budgets to establish priority objectives, address projected threats, estimate costs, risk and tradeoffs, and identify/minimize resource constraints.
- Conduct in-depth, detailed analysis and evaluation of proposed NIP investments to independently document mission and cost effectiveness levels.
- Conduct in-depth analysis of NIP policies, missions, plans, and capabilities, ensuring linkage to the NIS and other Intelligence Community (IC) priorities.
- Draft IC resource strategies, analytical issue papers, strategic evaluations, background papers, talking points, resource issue papers, and/or other analytic products applying extensive subject matter knowledge to support the IC senior leadership in making informed programmatic decisions.
- Draft presentations of findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to ODNI and IC senior management.
- Analyze and evaluate (on a quantitative/qualitative basis) the effectiveness of current and planned NIP investments in meeting established IC goals and objectives.
- Conduct independent analyses of IC capabilities and programs, to support presentations to the DNI on alternative courses of action, identifying cost and mission impacts and clarifying the advantages and disadvantages of each alternative.
- Assess, document, and validate NIP funded capability requirements.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of the IC and its components, missions, and interrelationships, including the ability to work as a member of broad-based teams regarding key IC issues.
 - Extensive knowledge and background in intelligence operations providing needs, capability gaps, and capability requirements support to policy, planning, and/or operations strategy and development for a variety of disciplines (e.g., Geospatial Intelligence, Signals Intelligence, Measurement & Signatures Intelligence, and Communications Systems).
- Extensive knowledge of IC and DoD collection management or needs/requirements management procedures and governing documents, as well as planning, programming, and budgeting processes.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE
