 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Civil Liberties and Privacy Office (CLPO) implements the responsibilities of the Civil Liberties Protection Officer under applicable laws, executive orders, directives, and policies, including Section 103D of the National Security Act, Section 1062 of the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention Act, and EO 12333. Specifically, the CLPO's mission includes to oversee compliance by the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) with the constitution, all laws, Executive Orders, and implementing guidelines relating to civil liberties or privacy; ensure the protection of civil liberties and privacy is appropriately incorporated in policies and procedures developed and implemented by the ODNI and elements of the Intelligence Community (IC); ensure that the use of technologies sustain, and do not erode, privacy protections regarding the use, collection, and disclosure of personal information; ensure adequate procedures to receive, respond to, investigate, and redress privacy and civil liberties complaints; assess – and as appropriate, investigate - complaints and other information indicating possible abuses of civil liberties and privacy in the activities of the ODNI; conduct privacy impact assessments and ensure that personal information contained in a system of records subject to the Privacy Act is handled in compliance with fair information practices set out in the Privacy Act; review ODNI actions, policies, guidelines, and their implementation; and perform other duties as assigned by the DNI.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Execute the Office of Civil Liberties, Privacy and Transparency (CLPT) duties as they relate to the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) and across the Intelligence Community (IC).
- Analyze, evaluate, and inform findings, conclusions and policy recommendations relating to or impacting civil liberties and privacy.
- Identify and address civil liberties and privacy issues impacting ODNI and IC policies, programs, and activities.
- Conduct civil liberties assessments and provide structured recommendations for policies, procedures, and standards of operations.
- Develop competencies, draft guidance, and establish safeguards to ensure the protection of civil liberties and privacy is appropriately incorporated in the development and implementation of policies, procedures, programs, and activities of the ODNI.
- Ensure compliance with legal and policy requirements relating to civil liberties issues.
- Review and assess complaints of possible civil liberties abuses regarding the administration of ODNI programs and operations, investigate any such complaints or information, and formulate strategies to address complaints.

- Collaborate and liaise with the Civil Liberties Protection Officer, senior ODNI officials, and other key stakeholders to ensure a comprehensive awareness of status and/or changes to policies, procedures, and standards to protect civil liberties.
- Evaluate processes and procedures to ensure personal information contained in a Privacy Act system of records is handled in full compliance with fair information practices.
- Assist with policy development, clarification, and privacy protection implementation initiatives to ensure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and other IC policies.
- Establish advocacy initiatives to stay abreast of current policies, strategic planning initiatives, and civil liberties protection legislation.
- Represent CLPT at meetings, conferences, and other public fora to exchange knowledge and encourage collaboration regarding civil liberties issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of federal civil liberties statutes, regulations, guidelines, policies, and procedures.
- Extensive knowledge of the IC, law enforcement, and counterterrorism information sharing and privacy issues.
- Extensive knowledge of international, state, and local civil liberties issues, including the demonstrated ability to analyze information and database technologies that may implicate privacy protections.
- Extensive knowledge of research methodologies and legal practices to conduct research, interpret laws, regulations and policies, analyze issues, and draft findings, assessments, and make recommendations.
- Demonstrated organizational and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated ability to manage competing priorities.
- Demonstrated analytic and critical thinking skills, including the demonstrated ability to conduct assessments, to identify issues and to develop process improvement recommendations.
- Demonstrated skill in negotiating and consulting and superior judgment in applying principles to identify and solve problems.

Desired Requirements

- Strong knowledge of intelligence surveillance authorities, EO 12333, 2.3 SIGINT Sharing, U.S. Persons (U.S.P.) protections, U.S. Attorney General (AG) Guidelines, Presidential Policy Directive 28 (PPD-28), etc.
- Demonstrated experience with FISA and Section 702 oversight and compliance, guidance, and transparency.
- Demonstrated knowledge of privacy shield principles.
- Experience with Intelligence Oversight Board (IOB) reviews and reporting.
- Demonstrated experience handling privacy and civil liberties related complaints and whistleblowing.
