Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

The National Counterintelligence and Security Center's (NCSC) National Counterintelligence Directorate (NCID) supports the Director of NCSC in his role as the National Counterintelligence Executive (NCIX) for the Federal Government. Our primary mission is to deepen the U.S. Government's understanding of foreign intelligence entities' plans, intentions, capabilities, tradecraft, and operations targeting U.S. national interests and sensitive information and assets. We lead the IC's mission to identify and counter foreign intelligence threats by incorporating CI into national-level decision making and leading integrated analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to address priority intelligence gaps and CI mission needs. Our Directorate is growing to address the expanding CI threat. We are looking for qualified personnel to:

- Lead the identification of foreign intelligence threats, priorities, and gaps;
- Lead and guide IC analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to address priority intelligence gaps and counter foreign intelligence threats;
- Lead the IC in assessing progress against CI priorities and gaps;
- Lead the development of solutions to address CI capability needs;
- Integrate CI into national decision making.
- Serve as the principal counterintelligence advisor to the Director of NCSC and the NIM for Economic Security and Threat Finance on matters pertaining to U.S. economic security and threat finance.
- Support other NCSC components, ODNI, and IC agencies as applicable by leading national CI campaigns and initiatives focused on protecting U.S. economic security and threat finance, to include: leading analysis, collection, and CI initiatives to identify and counter foreign intelligence threats in the economic security and threat finance domains; leading the IC in assessing progress against CI priorities and gaps; leading the development of solutions to address CI capability needs; and integrating CI into national decision making on economic security and threat finance issues.

- Lead CI threat prioritization strategies and initiatives for the economic security and threat finance portfolio. Collaborate with NCSC counterparts on the implementation of the National CI strategy/Roadmap, CI mission reviews, and evaluation of key gaps; advance the mission objectives of the National CI Strategy, National Intelligence Strategy, and Unifying Intelligence Strategy for CI.
- Lead briefings to senior policy and IC officials and other major stakeholders on economic security and threat finance-related threats, priorities, and gaps.
- Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information of interest, coordinate joint actions, and ensure alignment of programs, procedures, and guidelines; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on economic security and threat finance issues.
- Recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse collaborative networks with the ODNI and across the IC and routinely engage IC counterparts to ensure effective integration.
- Develop and continually expand personal knowledge in counterintelligence and achieve a government-wide reputation as a force for integration.
- Support briefings to senior IC officials and other major stakeholders collaboration progress, issues, and challenges.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of IC analysis and collection sufficient to lead economic security and threat finance-related CI initiatives and identify relevant analytic and collection requirements and gaps.
- Demonstrated leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups and build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals.
- Extensive knowledge of and experience in the intelligence cycle.
- Demonstrated written, oral communication, and critical thinking skills, as demonstrated by the ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
- Outstanding interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills; ability to build and leverage professional networks; and ability to work effectively both independently and in a team/collaborative environment.

Desired Requirements

- Knowledge of issues pertaining to U.S. economic security and threat finance and/or experience working with U.S. Government economic security and threat finance components.
- Previous intelligence mission management experience.
- Previous counterintelligence experience and/or knowledge of IC organizations' counterintelligence components, mission posture, structure, capabilities, processes, and policies.

- One year equivalent to at least next lower grade level in the normal line of progression.
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience in mission specialty area.
