Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail assignment, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Partner with ODNI staff, Functional, Mission, and Enterprise Managers, and IC elements to promote implementation of mission and enterprise objectives.

Lead a team of Intelligence Functional Advisors who collaborate with mission partners internal to the ODNI and across the IC to promote collection integration and mission effectiveness in each of their disciplines.

Provide direct support to counterpart ODNI offices (CFO, AP&F, RCE, DAMA, OLA) on budget and oversight-related issues concerning Intelligence Functions. Provide input on mission impact and assist with responses to congressionally-directed actions (CDAs).

Inform and advise Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) leadership and components of Intelligence Functional Managers' priorities, challenges, investments, and contributions.

Lead the development of initiatives that will improve partnerships, promote best practices, and foster integration across the spectrum of intelligence disciplines.

Support DMI initiatives to address cross-cutting enterprise challenges and mission management priorities.

Brief senior ODNI leaders, IC members, policymakers, military decision makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders on collection requirements and investments.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Superior ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, and to logically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate multiple sources of information for their inclusion in briefings and written documents.

Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

Superior ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, including senior-level policymakers.

Experience as a collector or collection manager in at least one intelligence discipline.

Desired Requirements

Experience in leading and managing operationally diverse teams.

Superior ability to develop innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative and making key contributions to group efforts.

Experience in Management, Operations or Acquisition Processes related to at least one of the following collection disciplines – SIGINT, GEOINT, MASINT, HUMINT or OSINT.

Demonstrated ability to work across Intelligence Agencies to achieve shared goals.

Experience briefing at senior levels.

Knowledge of the IPPBE process.

Ten years of experience leading strategic planning, managing, and directing the successful efforts of a government or private organization.

Previous experience in a supervisory role.
