 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Provide expert guidance and review of well-crafted, sophisticated, complex analytic products for operational customers on sometimes sensitive issues in support of United States (US) foreign policy and national security objectives.
- Guide the development of methodological tools and approaches to better understand complex analytic issues and oversee the incorporation of insights and findings into well-crafted, sophisticated targeting intelligence products; be able to explain effectively these highly complex approaches and the results to non-expert customers.
- Lead and direct counterterrorism targeting work in a manner consistent with fulfilling organizational directives and accomplishing mission goals.
- Develop and maintain working relationships with senior ODNI officials and, as necessary, principals throughout the intelligence and policy communities; identify issues and developments with internal and external peers, communicating regularly to exchange subject information.
- Plan, develop, utilize, and refine methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of complex and significant analytic issues and incorporate insights and findings into well-crafted, sophisticated targeting intelligence products.
- Lead a team of targeting analysts from multiple agencies, helping to set objectives and providing feedback and assessing performance in accordance with home agency needs and ODNI requirements.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Superior ability to direct taskings and creatively lead the development of high-quality, sophisticated targeting analysis, projects, and briefings tailored to the needs of operational customers and senior policymakers at the highest levels of government.
- Expert ability to manage performance and support professional development, effectively and efficiently addressing employee performance shortcomings and taking measurable steps to increase proficiency;
- Expert analytic and critical thinking skills, including superior ability to problem-solve and think strategically; superior ability to effectively express complex, multi-discipline ideas and insights verbally and in writing to a variety of audiences up to and including senior leadership.

Desired Requirements

- Demonstrated ability to remain flexible in light of new information and requirements; ability to support and defend group decisions and assessments, accept and incorporate feedback, provide opinions, solicit opinions from coworkers, and collaborate on a variety of assignments. • Expert ability to use link analysis and chaining tools, and demonstrated ability to lead and promote the development and use of a broad range of other methodological tools and approaches to research, analyze, and present data (modeling, SATs, social network analysis, etc.).
