Component Mission:

The Office of the Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Strategy and Engagement (S&E) is responsible for aligning the Intelligence Community’s current focus with future strategies to drive national security outcomes. S&E positions the IC to achieve the future vision by leading transformative initiatives and cutting-edge research and development; supporting and spurring innovations; re-imagining data management in the digital age; establishing clear policy direction; and actively engaging with senior policymakers and the public.

The ODNI Intelligence Advisor to the Director, Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell (HRFC) serves as the ODNI representative to the HRFC, housed in the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Hoover Building. This position requires an understanding of internal ODNI processes and procedures, the ability to work collaboratively with interagency partners with varying authorities and priorities, and advanced interpersonal skills in order to engage with families who have or had members held hostage or detained by terrorists or other entities. The ODNI Intelligence Advisor works closely with the ODNI Hostage Issue Manager to support the safe recovery of hostages by providing tailored intelligence support to the HRFC and assisting with hostage-related information sharing requests including developing, clearing, and delivering talking points to family members, often in a crisis timeframe.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

• Serve as the senior intelligence officer and a member of the leadership team in the presidentially directed Hostage Recovery Fusion Cell (HRFC), on behalf of the ODNI.

• Serve as the HRFC IC lead, driving collaboration among IC agency assignees and representatives in the HRFC, maximizing organizational representation, information sharing, and information security.

• Lead the monitoring and the implementation of interagency plans by coordinating and integrating competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders; plan and participate in interagency meetings.

• Establish plan, promote, and share information and knowledge within ODNI and with other government agencies, and effectively recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

• Serve as an IC representative and intelligence expert in HRFC briefings with hostage families; represent the IC during engagements with liaison partners and non-government entities.
• Identify and task analytic production based on HRFC priorities, USG customer requirements, and policymaker discussions. Synchronize IC collection efforts across hostage cases.

• Oversee information sharing on hostage-related matters. In conjunction with other HRFC and IC components, manage information clearance processes, including clearing information for external audiences such as hostage families, Congress, and the public.

Mandatory Requirements:

• Expert knowledge and experience with planning processes, critical analysis, consensus building, as well as the application and integration of all instruments of national power in protecting the U.S. and its interests abroad.

• Superior ability to plan and coordinate the integration of existing and emerging interagency capabilities to accomplish operational or strategic objectives.

• Superior ability to develop innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative and making key contributions to group efforts.

• Expert knowledge and experience with the mission, charter, roles and responsibilities of the IC and the interrelationships of its customers and stakeholders.

• Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

• Superior ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, to include senior-level policymakers.

• Superior ability to lead interagency planning efforts for complex interagency projects, taking into account a diverse range of considerations and ensuring that the activities can be successfully completed.
