Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Office Mission

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the most senior intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate, which represents the Intelligence Community's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan, prepare, produce, and coordinate finished intelligence, with a focus on South Korean and inter-Korean issues.
- Prepare talking points, papers, and briefing books for the DNI, Principal Deputy DNI, and DDMI for their participation in National Security Council Principals Committee and Deputies Committee meetings related to Korea issues.
- Execute analytic taskings from the NSC, senior officials and flag officers on issues of strategic importance to United States related to Korea, including quick-turn requirements in crisis and contingency conditions.
- Support the National Intelligence Officer (NIO) for North Korea with advising the DNI, PDDNI, DDMI and other senior IC leaders and policymakers on key developments and issues related to Korea, particularly South Korea.
- Draft and contribute to correspondence and products in response to Congressional tasking, including testimony, talking points, and statements for the record for the DNI and senior Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) staff.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

- Conduct self-initiated and directed research in support of NIC analytic products on Korea issues.
- Serve as the working-level focal point at the NIC for coordinating analytic efforts on South Korean issues, facilitating collaboration across NIO portfolios and the IC, as well as leveraging outside expertise via planning and executing outreach events.
- Build and leverage diverse collaborative networks within the ODNI and across the IC.
- Draft and contribute to correspondence and products in response to Congressional tasking, including testimony, talking points, and statements for the record for the DNI and senior Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) staff.
- Conduct self-initiated and directed research in support of NIC analytic products on Korea issues.
- Serve as the working-level focal point at the NIC for coordinating analytic efforts on South Korean issues, facilitating collaboration across NIO portfolios and the IC, as well as leveraging outside expertise via planning and executing outreach events.
- Build and leverage diverse collaborative networks within the ODNI and across the IC.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge of Korea issues relevant to US national security, particularly related to South Korea, and experience with the Korea analytic community.
- Proven critical thinking, reasoning skills, and the ability to prepare finished intelligence assessments and other written products with emphasis on clear organization and concise, logical and persuasive presentation.
- Proven ability to balance competing issues and to complete multiple high-priority projects under short timelines.
- Proven communication, organizational, and interpersonal skills, including the ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels of leadership with regard to Korea issues; proven ability to give oral presentations.
- Working knowledge of research tools and collaboration skills to lead cross-IC analytic projects.
- Creative problem-solving skills and initiative in carrying out mission responsibilities
