Component Mission:

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the senior most intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate (NIE), which represents the IC's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities: (MDRs)

- Partner with leadership on the IC's production of strategic analysis of issues of importance to U.S. interests regarding the Near East region, with a secondary focus on North Africa.
- Prepare, produce, and coordinate National Intelligence Estimates and other Community papers (IC Assessments, IC Briefs, and Sense of the Community Memoranda).
- Provide subject matter expertise based on customer needs and analytic requirements for national intelligence, collection, and analysis matters.
- Participate in the development of assessments on analysis regarding North Africa and related Middle East issues that support the DNI's role as principal intelligence adviser to the President.
- Prepare and coordinate background papers and briefing books for the DNI's participation in National Security Council Principals Committee, Cabinet meetings, and Congressional testimony.

- Brief senior IC members, policy makers, military decisions makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders on Middle East issues as necessary.
- Develop and sustain a professional network with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers on Middle East issues; assist in providing the Middle East analytic community with insights into policy deliberations to allow analysts to anticipate policymaker needs for analytic production.
- Review and analyze research and production plans on Middle East regional issues of the IC's analytic components; identify redundancies and gaps; work with the NIM-NE team to develop strategies to mitigate gaps; and advise the DNI on shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC.
- Establish and sustain professional networks with academia, the business community, and other non-government subject matter experts to ensure the IC has a comprehensive understanding of Middle East issues.
- Recognize, value, build, and leverage diverse collaborative networks with the ODNI and across the IC.

Mandatory Requirements:

Recognized subject matter expert on the Middle East; expertise on North Africa desirable but not required; knowledge of the IC's Middle East analytic community and collection issues sufficient to lead the IC's analytic production and work with the NIM-NE team to identify collection requirements and mitigate gaps required.

- Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and management skills to conceptualize and effectively lead complex analytic projects.
- Demonstrated ability to work with and represent the Community when analytic views differ among agencies.
- Excellent communications skills, including the ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels of leadership and all levels of knowledge of regional issues, to give oral presentations, and to otherwise represent the NIC in interagency meetings.
- Proven critical thinking and reasoning skills and the ability to prepare finished intelligence assessments and other written products with emphasis on clear organization and concise, logical presentation.
- Extensive knowledge of and ability to apply analytic, diagnostic, and qualitative techniques sufficient to produce authoritative finished intelligence products and the ability to employ new methodological approaches to analyze information.

- Creative problem-solving skills and superior ability to provide leadership in carrying out mission responsibilities.

Desired Requirements:

- Experience on North Africa helpful but not required.
- Working knowledge and skills to use collaborative tools such as Intellipedia, SharePoint, A Space, or on-line Communities of Interest (COIs).
