Component Mission:

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- This is a developmental position for junior officers seeking to grow their CI and Security acumen at the national level. Officers selected via this posting will have the opportunity to work in multiple directorates within NCSC based on their background, skills, interests, and current NCSC mission needs. Incumbents' duties will include a number of the following:
 - Help advance the objectives of the National CI Strategy: Protecting the nation's critical infrastructure, reducing threats to key US supply chains, countering the exploitation of the US economy, defending American democracy against foreign influence, and countering foreign intelligence cyber and technical operations.
 - Support efforts to reform the security clearance process and ensure a trusted workforce.
 - Be part of a national task force leading the National Insider Threat program.
 - Support outreach efforts to multiple stakeholders including the private sector; federal, state and local partners; foreign partners; and the public.
 - Produce analytical issue papers, background papers, resource issue papers, and other analytic products applying extensive subject matter knowledge to support the senior leadership in making informed programmatic decisions.
