The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), Chief Operating Officer (COO) has the responsibility and authority for supervising, coordinating, providing guidance, and administering the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) direction to the ODNI, as well as providing guidance to the ODNI centers. This includes integrating and synchronizing policy, plans, positions, procedures, and cross-functional issues. The COO is responsible for synchronizing and integrating the ODNI staff to execute all missions and tasks designated by the DNI and the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI). In addition, the COO oversees the internal management of the ODNI.

The Office of Preparedness and Mission Resilience (DNI/COO/PMR) facilitates Intelligence Community (IC)-wide mission resiliency though emergency management to reduce the impact of emergencies on the IC workforce and government property and continuity planning to sustain mission essential functions under all conditions. This includes IC support to Continuity of Government (COG) efforts, providing guidance and coordination for IC Continuity of Operations planning, tracking and reporting of IC capabilities and events, exercising and managing the ODNI's internal continuity and emergency management programs. The selected position may be assigned to any of the PMR functional mission areas where they will perform a broad range of resiliency focused activities that will directly support continuity, risk management, emergency management, watch operations, capabilities integration and test, training and exercise programs.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- Perform day-to-day related program activities (continuity of operations, continuity of government, enduring constitutional government, emergency management, watch operations, capabilities integration and test training and exercises) for the PMR leadership and program managers, including all applicable programs and resources. Research, maintain and develop applicable strategic and operational planning documents.
- Plan for and serve during deployments for National Security Emergencies, National Special Security Events, IC and ODNI national continuity alerts and activations, emergencies, incident management responses, exercises, and other national response and operations initiatives.
- Assist in the development, planning and or conduct continuity exercises, training and/or program evaluation plans, procedures, and methodology.
- Collaborate with IC partners to ensure that resources are properly arrayed to address continuity requirements identified in existing policy.
- Research, develop and write changes in policies and procedures to ensure appropriate information sharing with regard to continuity and emergency management related programs.
- Support the mission and enterprise objectives of the National Intelligence Strategy or other national level guidance documents.
- Build and leverage diverse collaborative networks within the ODNI and across the IC.
Participate in the development of the annual “state of the mission” report

Plan, coordinate, and participate in internal and inter-agency committees, forums, educational classes, awareness campaigns and special events.

Assist with the development of training plans related to contingency operations and crisis management; develop and support the delivery of operational exercises, informational briefings, operational programs, and training events that support operational and emergency plans.

Instruct resiliency focused training topics.

This position is subject to recall 24/7/365, operational shift work to conduct continuity and emergency management operations, which may require irregular work hours, work at locations other than the official duty station, and may include duties other than those specified in the employee's official position description. Travel requirements in support of continuity and emergency management operations may be extensive in nature (weeks to months), with little advance notice, and may require employees to relocate to emergency sites with physically austere and operationally challenging conditions.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Ability in analytic and critical thinking, including the ability to assess situations, identify needs and requirements, and develop processes improvements with recommendations for implementation.

- Knowledge of and experience with resiliency focused activities that directly support continuity, risk management, emergency management, watch center operations, capabilities integration or test, training and exercise programs.

- Ability to build and sustain professional relationships, and coordinate cross-functional team initiatives, and to encourage information sharing.

- Ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

- Willingness to become proficient in a broad range of resiliency focused knowledge, skills and abilities in continuity, risk, emergency management, watch operations and test, training and exercise.

- Ability to work effectively in a team or collaborative environment with a diverse group of people from different backgrounds, perspectives and skillsets.

- Willingness to be recalled around the clock for continuity and emergency management operations.

Desired:

- Two or more years of experience directly working on continuity, risk management, emergency management, watch operations, capabilities integration and/or test, training and exercise programs for a government or private organization.

- Experience in strategic and tactical communications.
• Experience managing and implementing watch shift schedules. Experience working with IC elements in working groups, forums, taskforce, etc.
• Experience in continuity focused Information Technology systems
• Bachelor’s degree or equivalent experience as determined by mission specialty area
• Graduate Degree
• The ability to earn a continuity or emergency management focused professional certification within 12 months of entering on duty.
