- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Chief Operating Officer (COO) has the responsibility for advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) and administering the DNI's vision and direction to the ODNI enterprise. This includes synchronizing policy, plans, procedures, and cross-functional issues. The COO is responsible for integrating the ODNI staff to execute all missions and tasks designated by the DNI and the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI), and for overseeing the internal management of the ODNI.

The COO oversees all ODNI business operations, including such areas as human resources, diversity & inclusion, finance and budget, information technology, security, facilities, and information management. The COO is also responsible for ODNI's emergency planning.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with senior policymakers across the IC in order to coordinate strategy development activities and evolving requirements and promote implementation of mission activities in support of mission and enterprise objectives.

Advise and engage senior USG leadership on strategic priorities, opportunities, gaps, and interdependencies to enable intelligence resources to support decision-making at the strategic level; lead and oversee the communication of emerging strategic issues and trends, independently evaluate against IC strategic elements, and make recommendations for improvements.

Lead, plan, and prepare briefings, reports, and presentations that provide expert analysis and critical recommendations to ODNI leadership, and senior USG policymakers.

Partner with ODNI staff, Functional, Mission, and Enterprise Managers, and IC elements to promote implementation of mission and enterprise objectives.

Lead, plan, and oversee the advancement of outreach activities within and beyond the IC to ensure long term strategy development is informed by the latest and best efforts across the U.S. Government, industry, and foreign partners.

Lead and oversee the planning and completion of assessments to evaluate IC progress towards mission and enterprise objectives and determine how well the IC is postured for future environments.

Manage to ensure full range of understanding of customer requirements related to assigned missions and ensuring these requirements have been conveyed to and coordinated with the ODNI and the IC.

Determine the state of analysis on assigned missions, identifying analytic gaps related to customer requirements, and identifying opportunities for analytic work related to those missions, ensuring that work is consistent with the overall guidance from the DNI and evaluating responsiveness in filling analytic gaps.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Expert organizational and interpersonal skills to facilitate diverse forums, manage competing priorities, and advocate new ideas/concepts/processes.

Superior ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, and to logically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate multiple sources of information for their inclusion in briefings and written documents.

Superior ability to exercise independent judgment on time-sensitive issues and work collaboratively across the IC.

Desired Requirements

Master's degree in National Security/International Affairs.

Experience working highly complex and ambiguous assignments that normally require integration and synthesis of a number of unrelated disciplines and disparate concepts
