Component Mission

The Office of Intelligence Community Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity (IC EEOD) reports directly to the Director of National Intelligence and is responsible for the overall strategic management of the IC’s efforts to build a more diverse and inclusive workforce. IC EEOD oversees compliance with federal laws, policies, procedures, and requirements relating to EEO. IC EEOD also develops initiatives, policies and programs, and provides guidance and consultation to diverse stakeholders. The Office of IC EEOD collects, analyzes and reports on workforce demographics and trends across multiple aspects of workforce diversity, including, but not limited to women, minorities, and persons with disabilities.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan, develop, and evaluate the related strategic planning documents in support of IC EEOD programs and activities for building a more diverse and inclusive workforce.

- Plan and complete assessments of the IC EEOD’s progress towards mission and enterprise strategic objectives and determine how well the IC is postured for future environments.

- Engage senior IC leadership on strategic priorities, opportunities, gaps, and interdependencies to link resources to strategy; plan and communicate emerging strategic issues and trends, evaluate them in context of U.S. Government plans, and make recommendations for improvements.

- Plan and facilitate development of strategic guidance for IC EEOD programs and activities.

- Plan and develop efforts to create a culture of strategic planning across the IC by promoting best practices in strategy development, execution, and evaluation and by communicating to IC elements priorities, activities, and impact in order to promote shared vision, values, and goals.

- Establish, sustain and advance outreach activities within and beyond the IC to ensure long term strategy development of building a more diverse and inclusive workforce is informed by best practices from the U.S. Government, industry, and foreign partners.
• Plan and prepare briefings, reports, and presentations to organizational leadership, senior policymakers, and senior U.S. Government officials in a manner that meets their specified requirements and provide expert analysis and recommendations that ensure IC EEOD strategic plans and programs align with IC strategic objectives.

• Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with peers and senior leaders across the IC in order to coordinate strategy development activities and evolving requirements and promote the implementation of mission and enterprise objective.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

• Extensive knowledge of strategy development and planning, and a demonstrated ability to identify emerging trends and strategic issues and incorporate these into organizational strategic plans.

• Extensive knowledge of IC organizations' missions in order to develop the national-level strategies and policies necessary to support IC EEOD mission and enterprise strategic objectives.

• Extensive understanding of performance management principles and superior ability to advise organizations on the application of evaluation methods.

• Demonstrated ability to conceptualize, organize, and draw inferences from incomplete data and present a compelling analysis of findings and issues; demonstrated ability to identify, articulate, document, and mitigate knowledge gaps or alternatives approaches.

• Demonstrated ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, and to logically analyze, synthesize, and evaluate multiple sources of information for their inclusion in briefings and written documents.

• Demonstrated ability to lead research teams and working groups comprised of government and contract personnel.

• Demonstrated organizational and interpersonal skills to facilitate diverse fora, manage competing priorities, and advocate new ideas/concepts/processes; demonstrated ability to exercise independent judgment on time-sensitive issues and work collaboratively across the IC.

• Demonstrated ability to develop effective professional and interpersonal relationships with peers and colleagues in the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), the IC, and U.S. Government and to earn their confidence and trust.

Desired Requirements

• Six years of experience leading strategic planning, managing, and directing the successful efforts of a government or private organization.

• Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience as determined by mission specialty area.

• TS/SCI clearance.
