- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.
- For a selected non-Federal Government candidate, salary will be established within the salary range listed above, based on education and experience.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the most senior intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate, which represents the Intelligence Community's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

In partnership with the Chair of the NIC, the Vice Chair will carry out the following responsibilities:

Partner with U.S. Government agencies to ensure the delivery of effective and efficient mission support services to customers.

Oversee and manage the day-to-day operations of the NIC, and support the NIC Chairman in programmatic and budgetary responsibilities and decisions.

Preside over the NIC's production of Community-coordinated all-source intelligence assessments on critical national security issues for the U.S. Government's most senior policy makers, military decision makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders.
Formulate, implement, and monitor the NIC's budget against mission requirements, and direct policy or budgetary obstacles that impede achieving milestones.

Develop and execute the NIC's production plans, review, and approve, with the Chairman and Counselor, all NIC products.

Direct the NIC's collaboration with the National Intelligence Managers (NIMs) and across the Office of the Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Mission Integration (DDNI/MI) to identify and articulate the IC's analytic needs and priorities for collection.

Facilitate outreach to non-governmental subject matter experts in academia, think tanks, the private sector, and foreign government counterparts to broaden the NIC's understanding of critical national security issues.

Contribute to establishing and implementing standards for operations, and lead initiatives to assess and evaluate the performance of analytic capabilities.

Lead, manage, and direct the NIC's professional-level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Manage, engage and influence key stakeholders to support the ODNI's Key objectives.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Demonstrated experience and competence in managing a complex organization and addressing and resolving complex managerial challenges, including demonstrated good judgment and steadiness amid fast-moving events.

Senior-level expertise in leading analytic teams within an IC all-source production center, including a detailed understanding of analytic tradecraft and experience leading strategic analysis.

A demonstrated track record of improving analytic production via conceptualization and sophisticated editing skills.

Expert skills in leading interagency and interdisciplinary IC teams against a range of functional and regional analytical issues.

Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and management skills to conceptualize and effectively lead complex analytic projects.

Ability to work with and fairly represent the IC when analytic views differ among agencies.

Excellent communication skills, both written and oral. Exceptional editing and reviewing skills and a demonstrated ability to produce clear, logical, and concise products.

Extensive knowledge of IC best-practice methodologies in order to evaluate intelligence programs, synthesize and filter data, analyze issues, exert influence, and make recommendations at all staff levels.

Extensive knowledge in budget formulation, programming, budget execution, and strategic planning in the IC, defense agency, or a military service.
