- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead the IC's production of strategic analyses on issues of importance to United States (US) interests for Russian and Eurasian regional issues and advise the DNI on key developments and issues.
- Lead and oversee the preparation, production, and coordination of National Intelligence Estimates and other community-coordinated papers (Intelligence Community Assessments and Sense of the Community Memoranda).
- Provide expert analytical assessments to the DNI regarding Russian and Eurasian regional issues.
- Lead, plan, and oversee the preparation of background papers and briefing books for the DNI's participation in National Security Council, Cabinet meetings, and other senior-level policymaking meetings.
- Provide strategic guidance, direction, and leadership to establish national intelligence collection and analysis priorities, and in doing so identify critical intelligence gaps and support collection initiatives based on customer needs and analytic requirements.
- Lead, plan, and facilitate community sessions attended by IC specialists and non-US Government subject matter experts to address major events and trends and represent the IC, DNI, NIC, and the National Intelligence Officers (NIO) in the sessions.
- Lead and oversee the preparation of correspondence and/or products in response to congressional tasking, including testimony, talking points, and statements for the record for the DNI and senior DNI staff.
- Brief senior IC members, policymakers, military decision makers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders on Russian and Eurasian regional issues.
- Review and analyze IC analytic components' research and production plans on Russian and Eurasian regional issues, identify redundancies and gaps, direct strategies to address gaps, and advise the DNI on gaps and shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC.

UNCLASSIFIED

- Establish and foster liaison relationships with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers as well as academia, the business community, and other non-government subject matter experts to ensure the IC has a comprehensive understanding of emerging Russian and Eurasian regional issues.
- Support and/or act for the NIO/Russia and Eurasia.
- Develop and continually expand personal knowledge in area of expertise and achieve a government-wide reputation as a subject matter expert in this area.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expertise on Russian and Eurasian (Caucasus, Central Asia, Ukraine, Moldova, Belarus) regional issues and a deep understanding of US foreign policy priorities; proven ability to synthesize complex issues involving Russian and Eurasian regional issues for senior policymakers.
- Expert knowledge of the IC's analytic and collection communities and missions for Russian and Eurasian regional issues sufficient to lead the IC's analytic production and identify collection requirements and gaps.
- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and management skills and an expert ability to conceptualize and effectively lead complex analytic projects and promote consensus building across the IC when analytic views differ across agencies.
- Superior oral and written communications skills, including an expert ability to communicate effectively with people at all levels of the IC, deliver effective oral presentations, prepare finished intelligence assessments and other written products with emphasis on clear organization and logical presentation, and represent the NIC in interagency meetings.
- Expertise working with all parts of the IC in order to shape analytic production and encourage sound tradecraft.
- Expert knowledge of collection requirements and proven experience driving collection and identifying collection gaps.
- Expert ability to prioritize and manage multiple short-term and longer-term tasks and projects and perform senior staff functions as required.
- Expert knowledge of and superior ability to apply research capabilities and analytic, diagnostic, and qualitative techniques in order to produce authoritative finished intelligence products; expert ability to employ new methodological approaches to analyze information.
- Superior ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, and mentor junior colleagues.
