- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

The ODNI/NCSC Center for Security Evaluation (CSE) integrates Intelligence Community (IC) advice and requirements to the Department of State (DoS) to assist in carrying out the Secretary's statutory responsibility to develop and implement policies and programs for the protection of US posts abroad, their personnel, and national security information.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

CSE is seeking a security specialist to lead the Beirut Embassy on-site efforts. The selectee shall perform security administration work which does not fall under "Personnel Security Specialist". This would include positions performing work in two or more functional security areas other than in industrial security.

Lead and oversee the security planning and management for the construction of United States (US) diplomatic facilities abroad in critical threat environments and for domestic facilities requiring high levels of security to ensure that technical, physical, procedural, and transit security elements are successfully addressed.

Lead, plan, coordinate, and provide direction to Department of State (DoS) planning and construction teams, domestic construction teams, technical security staffs, and general contractor security staffs to ensure adherence to construction plans.

Lead the planning, coordination, and preparation of Office of the Director of National Intelligence's (ODNI) strategic and tactical planning efforts and use the developed plans to ensure the sound security of construction projects in critical threat environments.

Lead, plan, and direct the development and review of security plans, procedures, and countermeasures for on-going and proposed projects in the areas of domestic and overseas building construction and transportation issues.

Oversee the identification, analysis, and mitigation of risks in dynamic and unpredictable construction projects.

Lead the planning and execution of construction security plans in compliance with DoS, Intelligence Community (IC), and the Overseas Security Policy Board (OSPB) security requirements.

Lead, plan, and facilitate construction coordination and issue resolution meetings to ensure that IC best-practice methodologies are implemented in the construction of US diplomatic facilities abroad. Identify and evaluate risks and vulnerabilities and advise management and the IC of their impact.

Lead the planning, coordination, and facilitation of meetings with senior ODNI officials to provide security status reports and structured recommendations for improving ODNI's effectiveness in providing security for current facility construction projects in critical threat environments.

Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with security colleagues, IC security experts, senior Foreign Service staff, construction personnel, and ODNI management to provide security briefings, status reports and structured recommendations regarding the security of construction projects.

Serve as the Assistant Site Security Manager for the Beirut Embassy construction project, which includes overseeing all site security matters.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Expert knowledge of domestic IC and DoS overseas building operations and diplomatic security systems, standards, and requirements, including technical, physical, procedural, transit security elements, and technical security countermeasures.

Expert knowledge of construction security policies related to domestic and DoS overseas facilities, including superior ability to manage, analyze, and synthesize classified material regarding security standards, policies and procedures.

Superior foreign field experience in security, program management, and/or other IC security activities as well as availability for foreign and domestic travel.

Superior ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.

Superior ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, mentor junior colleagues, and utilize strong organizational and interpersonal problem solving skills.

Expert knowledge of physical security in an overseas diplomatic environment and of overseas construction security standards (OSPB, Director of Central Intelligence Directive, and IC Directives).

Expert knowledge of IC components, security programs, processes, practices, and methodologies, as well as expert knowledge of how physical and technical security is incorporated into US facilities both domestic overseas.

Superior ability to establish regular contact with high-level internal and external resources and customers, supplying or seeking information on security programs and issues; superior ability to tactfully express ideas or opinions to senior leaders, customers, contractors, and other stakeholders.

Minimum Qualifications

Must be available for foreign field assignment to Beirut.

Successful completion of field administration and general services officer training.

Ability to work with minimal supervision in a fast-paced and constantly changing environment.

Strong communication skills, both verbal and written.

Demonstrated discretion, sound judgment, and excellent interpersonal skills.

Desired Requirements

Arabic or French is not required but highly desired.
