Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

NCTC, Directorate of Intelligence (DI), is seeking a hard-working individual to serve as a dissemination and disclosure officer. This officer will be part of a team that is responsible for downgrading and disclosing a wide variety of NCTC and ODNI products to domestic, allied, and foreign CT partners.

- Implement programs, policies, and procedures that result in the effective sharing of information across the Government while protecting Intelligence and Law Enforcement sources and methods, operational equities, and U.S. persons' privacy.
- Assist in the evaluation of the potential impact of obstacles to information flow across the Intelligence Community (IC) and collaborate with policy analysts and IC partners to implement policy and process improvements.

- Exchange information throughout the IC and to non-traditional customers by balancing the responsibility-to-provide principle with the need-to-know standard as defined by existing policies, laws, and regulations.
- Ensure that customers' needs are met and that information is timely.
- Continually expand personal expertise with regard to the development and implementation of information sharing tools, technology, plans, and policies to facilitate the cooperation and effective coordination of the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), the IC, and other U.S. Government agencies. Collaborate on inter-agency and cross-directorate internal information sharing policies, guidelines, and procedures, and/or broker information sharing agreements with external entities.
- Engage in interagency information sharing activities and programs by coordinating and integrating the competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders, to include planning and participating in interagency meetings.

Mandatory Requirements:

- Thorough knowledge of intelligence reporting, classification markings and caveats, and thorough knowledge of dissemination systems for classified information.
- Thorough knowledge of information sharing theory, policies, procedures, and technologies, as well as thorough knowledge of how to develop and facilitate the implementation of those mechanisms.
- Ability to logically analyze, synthesize, and judge information, as well as the ability to review and incorporate multiple sources of information in performing assignments.

Desired:

- Experience supporting the exchange of intelligence information between analysts and Federal and non-Federal end users in order to improve national and homeland security.
- Experience downgrading finished intelligence products.
